CANTON TURNS "RED."

COMMUNISTS OVERWHELM IRONSIDES.

COMPLETE CHAOS REIGNS.

Full Stories of Two Separate Engagements.

INCENDIARISM IN CITY AND GOVERNMENT BANK IN PERIL.

Their main strength having gone up the East River to exert pressure on their political foes, the Ironsides were surprised in Canton yesterday by a coup in which the Communists were substantially successful.

The danger of Canton becoming "Red," after hovering like a vulture over the city for more than two years, has materialised. When the first rest was called last night, following the excitement of the day, the Communists were still in control.

Observers are of the opinion that should the Ironsides reply to the challenge by withdrawing their units from the Rivers and concentrating them on the capital, they can still regain the upper hand.

Meanwhile chaos prevails in Canton. Public services have been disorganised, incendiary fires have not been put out, police headquarters has fallen, the government bank is in dire peril, and the Ironside chieftains have vanished.

Telegrams from a reliable correspondent at Canton appear below.

IRONSIDES MAY OPPOSE INVADERS.

Two separate engagements were fought yesterday and it is not safe to say definitely at the moment whether they were connected. Possibly, they were.

From a very reliable source, the "China Mail" political correspondent learns that the Ironsides had heard of the Communists' plot on Saturday night but chose to wait till Sunday morning before taking action.

Red Badges Prominent.

Yesterday morning, the Ironsides—the Cantonese faction in General Chang Fah-kuei, commander-in-chief of the Canton Ironsides, who has fled to Honan as a result of the Communist coup at Canton.

power—fought a brigade which had been recently added to their strength.

At about the same time or shortly afterwards, the Communists broke out. They wore red collar badges, red ties or red sashes and spread terror wherever they went.

The logical deduction at present, the correspondent continues, is that the brigade which opposed the Ironsides was in collusion with the Communists and that the Ironsides struck at the regulars first, leaving the city clear for the Reds.

History Repeated.

Only a month or so ago, the Ironsides overthrew the Kwangsi military regime under Generals Li Chai-sum and Wong Shiu-hung, who are two of "the big four" of the Nanking faction of the Nationalist Party.

The Ironsides won because their opponents had left very few troops in the city. Now in turn the Ironsides, having sent their men out of Canton, have been surprised by the Communists.

UNIONS JOIN IN.

Street Fighting and Looting in the City.

Outstanding features of the Communists' rising are:

They were stealing from place to place in the city, calling out supporters at 3 o'clock in the morning.

Street fighting, or skirmishing, took place all over the city.

Regular troops were seen rushing about with the Communists who were joined by members of labour unions and Peasants Corps who had arrived at the outskirts of the city on Saturday evening.

No Uniforms Worn.

The rebels were distinguished by red badges but beyond these they wore no uniform. In some respects they acted like the plain clothes soldiers who fought for the Nationalists in the earlier days of the war.

The Ironsides kept their uniforms, as did the Police and—as was the case in the coup against the Kwangsi faction—they had white scarves round their arms.

Determined onslaughts were made on government offices.

Carried by Storm.

Police Headquarters was carried by storm. Headquarters of the 4th Army (i.e., the Ironsides) was captured and confusion prevailed at the Central Bank around which flames and smoke belched forth till a late hour last night.

General Chang Fah-kuei (commander-in-chief) and General Wong Ki-cheung (second-in-command) went on board the gunboat "Kong Tai" which conveyed them to Honan where they are now with friends.

Police Commissioner's Fate.

Nobody knows where one of the Ironside leaders, Commander Chu Fai-yat is. He was Police Commissioner in addition to holding other posts. One report is that he was wounded in the leg and carried away in the Police armoured car.

Police stations were stripped of arms and other weapons, the authorities being taken completely by surprise.

About one o'clock yesterday afternoon, fires broke out in several parts of the city.

Simultaneously the Communists began looting where they could.

Bank in Flames?

Reports from the Central Bank are conflicting but it is thought that after holding out for a while, the military guard there failed to keep the raiders out and that the Bank suffered some loss.

Some say that the Bank was set on fire but the blaze, as seen from the River, seemed to be at the buildings between the Bank and the Municipality.

Shooting had not ceased at two o'clock when the Reds had firmly established themselves in Police Headquarters and were steadily calling out the labour unions, the disbanded pickets and bad characters.

Jails Broken Open.

A number of jails for political prisoners and labour agitators were broken open, the Communists releasing the hordes inside.

Towards evening, red flags were flying from all parts of the city and the Communists had already issued a proclamation announcing the beginning of a Communist regime and a Soviet government.

A NOTABLE FEAT.

Stranded J.C.L. Boat Echo.

UNITING TWO HALVES.

"Tjileboet" On Run Again in January?

The self-contained aft portion of the J.C.L. s.s. "Tjileboet," which was salvaged after the ship went ashore at Lingting Island on April 5, was missing this week-end from the other side of Stonecutters. For several months it has been an object of interest and wonder, particularly at night, when the lights indicate the presence of the Captain and officers who have made themselves comfortable on the "half ship" ever since the date of salvage (April 28).

Upon inquiry, the "China Mail" was informed that it had been towed to Talkoo Dock where the forward portion had now been completed. The work of joining the two sections will commence to-day and it is hoped that the "Tjileboet" will be on her regular run (Amoy, Shanghai, Dahu, Hong Kong and Java), by the end of January.

Salvage Recalled. It will be recalled that the "Tjileboet" was badly damaged and that the salvage presented unusual difficulties. The ship was firmly wedged on the rocks and could not be refloated and the work was rendered the more difficult by bad weather conditions.

The storm of April 21 came near to making a total wreck of the vessel and at the height of the storm, the Captain and officers had to take to the rocks for safety.

Eventually, however, the ship was cut in two, some ten feet forward of the bridge, by oxy-acetylene and blasting, the damaged forward part, being left on the rocks and the aft portion being successfully salvaged. The salvage constituted a notable piece of work and the Talkoo Dockyard and Engineering Company, who undertook it, were heartily congratulated on its success. The feat was unique in this part of the world and, it is believed, the third such on record.

THE USUAL WAY.

Skirmish as Prelude to the Rising.

As is usual when a stronger body of troops suspects a weaker of disloyalty, it attempts to disarm the men rather than kill it. The captured rifles are useful and the disarmed rank and file can serve further purpose if they are not killed.

The "new brigade" offered resistance. The fighting lasted a few hours and before a decision was reached, news was received that a reign of terror had commenced in the city.

Rails Torn Up.

Hostilities at Sau Kau Leng caused the Kowloon express to turn back with all passengers and it is also reported that the rails were ripped up. It is confirmed that the railway wires have been severed. No train left Canton yesterday for Hong Kong as it would have had to pass through the danger zone.

On inquiry from the Kowloon Canton Railway (British section) this morning, the "China Mail" was informed that the train service had not been resumed this morning.

WRITING ON THE WALL.

Was Nanking's Warning Timely?

Only last week the Nanking Nationalists stated that 50,000 rifles and 300 Russian officers were on their way from Vladivostok to Canton but it is not supposed that such has reached the destination yet. The statement also mentions that Kwangtung has been chosen as the base of a Communist revolution.

The Ironsides had less than 2,000 troops around Canton in addition to the Police and even this number consisted mostly of doubtful units, the crack regiments having gone up the West River to follow up the retreating Kwangsi army.

Paperglides Keep Out. Arms had been smuggled into the city but, it seems, the Reds depended mainly on the help of the doubtful units in the Ironside army.

CHANG & RUSSIA.

No Complete Break In The North.

FEAR OF INVASION.

Foreign Powers Showing No Desire To Fight "Reds."

Peking, Dec. 9. Great interest is manifested here in the efforts on the part of some of the Kuomintang members to have the Red consulates closed. Though Chang Tao-lin ejected the Soviet Ambassador he did not sever relations with Russia for the simple reason that he was engaged in a campaign against the Reds in China and could not run the risk of a rupture with the Soviet which might have afforded it the excuse for bringing armed forces into China to assist the Chinese communists, and also plunge him into warfare with a foreign force which would probably overwhelm him and leave China completely under the domination of Russia.

Advocates of a complete break with Russia see in the attitude of certain of the Kuomintang a chance for a united campaign against the Reds. The picture at Wembley Stadium's inauguration of greyhound racing in what remain of the desolate buildings of the exhibition ground illuminated by the glare of searchlight and lamps turned on between the races, the latter named after parts of the Empire. Once a dog overtook a hare and stopped bewildered, while the South African Stakes were named by wholesale fighting.

WHAT HE WILL DO.

Chiang Kai-shek Outlines Programme.

Shanghai, To-day.

Chiang Kai-shek in an interview stated that unless the Soviet discontinued their intrigues towards China, the Nationalist Government would be compelled to break off relations and close Soviet Consulates in Nationalist territories.

Affirming that the Kuomintang leaders had made him responsible for the "tremendous task of reunifying the parties and reorganising the Nationalist Government," Chiang Kai-shek added, "I intend to exert myself to the utmost to enforce peace in Nationalist territories and resume hostilities against Chang Tao-lin."

Chiang Kai-shek expressed his opinion that Japan would not embark upon another Shantung expedition, remarking that the last venture at Shantung had adversely affected the position of the Japanese Government at Home. Also, the Japanese people wanted to preserve friendly relations with the Chinese.

Chiang added that Japan, Russia and Germany were "negotiating for the purpose of forming a political bloc in order to oppose certain European alliances, though he refused to say what alliances.—Reuter.

Soviet but further developments in Kuomintang quarters will have to take place before any move will be made here.

The Powers.

The reasons preventing Chang Tao-lin from taking extreme steps are fully realized by the Diplomatic Body, many members of which would like to see Soviet propaganda nests completely extirpated, but the Diplomatic Corps cannot urge this.

WINDY AND CLOUDY.

North-east winds, moderate; generally cloudy is the official weather forecast until noon to-morrow.

A moderate monsoon may be expected over the China Sea. The anti-cyclone is near Vladivostok.

upon the Director, who would respond by asking why the Powers did not assist him to fight their battles.

The Powers are not inclined to do, since they are professedly adhering to the determination not to interfere in Chinese internal affairs. If the Powers would show any inclination to participate in an anti-Red campaign there would be no hesitancy on the part of the north to sever relations with the Soviet, but the North considers that it has every reason not to increase its difficulties by taking steps at this stage likely to "embellish" its insupportable difficulties.—M.C.D.N. Correspondent.

HOUND RACING.

Strange Happening at Wembley.

TRAP TAMPERED WITH.

Many Exciting Incidents Signalise Season's Opening.

London, Yesterday. The huge crowd at Wembley on Saturday night were unaware they nearly saw no racing. A sensational attempt to prevent the racing is now revealed. Just before the first race somebody tampered with the trap from whence the dogs are released for the races and smashed the mechanism, making it unworkable. Fortunately another dog trap was available and quickly substituted. The police are investigating the matter.—Reuter.

EXCITEMENT AT WEMBLEY STADIUM.

Wholesale Fighting.

London, Saturday. A huge semi-circle of gold with dogs in blue, red and green coats, thick shadows thrown behind them, hurling themselves after an electric hare and surrounded by a crowd of 70,000, plunged into dramatic darkness, rising to their feet, shouting and waving programmes.

This was the picture at Wembley Stadium's inauguration of greyhound racing in what remain of the desolate buildings of the exhibition ground illuminated by the glare of searchlight and lamps turned on between the races, the latter named after parts of the Empire. Once a dog overtook a hare and stopped bewildered, while the South African Stakes were named by wholesale fighting.

The Greyhound Racing Association announced that an agreement has been signed for the lease of the White City Stadium, under which the Association can race greyhounds for ten years.—Reuter.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

POLICE CONSTABLE DIES IN HOSPITAL.

SERGEANT'S GOOD PROGRESS.

A medical report received at the Central Police Station from the Government Civil Hospital this morning, recorded the death, which took place at 9.30 a.m., of Chinese police constable No. C66 (Chan Shing) the man who was on beat duty on the route of the police chase of Chinese armed robbers, and was wounded in the abdomen when he attempted to intercept one of the gunmen who was eventually brought down in the Connaught Garage in Des Vaux Road Central.

With regard to the condition of Sergeant Thomas McMahon, who was also wounded in the abdomen when he and a police picket attempted to search the gunmen in Wing Lok Street, it is gratifying to learn from the medical report that he is much better, and that there are considerable hopes of his making a complete recovery.

Chinese detective No. C446 who was wounded at the same time as Sergeant McMahon, is reported to be progressing favourably.

The others, the medical report added, are much the same.

Chinese constable No. C66, whose funeral will take place to-morrow, joined the Hong Kong Police Force on December 1, 1925 at the age of 25, so that he was 27 and had just completed two years' service with the Force at the time of his death. He had a good record in the Force.

The deceased was a native of Mahung village, Hoiung district, Kwangtung province. It is not known if he was married.

IN THE NEWS.

ITEMS FROM TO-DAY'S POLICE REPORTS.

A 7-year-old Chinese boy was yesterday removed to the Government Civil Hospital suffering from injuries to his head and left leg received through being knocked down in Queen's Road West by public motor car No. 258. The lad's injuries are not considered serious.

The driver of public motor car No. 310 has reported to the police that whilst he was driving the car on the Chinwan Road, yesterday, a small boy crossed the road in front of the car near Chungshawan was knocked down. He was removed in the car to the Kwong-Wah Hospital where the lad's condition is reported to be serious.

LABOUR'S SURTAX.

Mr. Philip Snowden Not Optimistic.

PRINCIPLE FAVOURED.

Sir John Simon Condemns Proposed Individual Levy.

London, Yesterday. Mr. Philip Snowden who was Chancellor of the Exchequer in the Labour Government, referring to the Labour Party's proposal for a 2s. surtax on personal income from investments, said yesterday that while he favoured the principle of the surtax he did not think it would realise anything approaching the estimated yield of £80,000,000.

He emphasised that in any case the tax should be used only for debt reduction.

Sir John Simon, the Liberal leader, in a public speech during the week-end, condemned the suggested surtax.—British Wireless Service.

High Expectations.

London, To-day. The Labour Party's surtax proposals were described as the "Expression of a principle" by Mr. Philip Snowden, speaking at Wigan over the week-end.

"Only a Chancellor can make a Budget," said the ex-Chancellor, who thought the idea of a surtax sound, but unlikely to realise the amount estimated. The details must be worked out by the Chancellor at the time in accordance with his obligations and the proceeds must be devoted exclusively to the reduction of debt. The "Financial Times" in a leader hereinafter says the high expectations induced by the hastily conceived plan of a surtax have been shattered by Mr. Snowden and points out his speech is a significant reply to Mr. Maxton, M.P., who demanded a definition of the ex-Chancellor's attitude.—Reuter.

CAPT. LALOR.

DIFFICULT TO ESTABLISH COMMUNICATIONS.

RENDEZVOUS TO-DAY?

Ichang, Yesterday. Considerable difficulty is being experienced in getting into touch with the captured China Navigation Company skipper, Captain Lalor, owing to the long chain of intermediaries through whom it is necessary to proceed.

It is hoped, however, to arrange a rendezvous for Monday when the offer of $20,000 on production of Capt. Lalor will be repeated.

In the meantime, bandits in the neighbourhood are causing much trouble to the inhabitants of Ichang, Shasi and adjoining areas.—British Naval Wireless.

Wife Interviewed.

London, Yesterday. In a quiet little flat, in Auckland Road, Southsea, a pale, anxious-faced woman half-dressed, half welcomes every knock at the door. She is Mrs. Lalor who married the missing captain on the day he sailed for China.

Interviewed yesterday, she remarked: "I am prepared to go to China whenever my husband wants me. I don't think that will be till he is out of danger."—Reuter.

CAPT. A. MACKINNON.

POPULAR STEAMBOAT CO. OFFICER DEAD.

20 YEARS ON COAST.

News has been received in the Colony of the death at Melbourne, Australia, of Captain A. Mackinnon who for over twenty years was in the service of the Hong Kong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Company during which time, he became one of the most popular skippers in the service.

Capt. Mackinnon, who was born in New Zealand, joined the Company's service in September, 1904, as Mate of the "Fatahan" and was promoted to master of the "Kishan" in March, 1924. He also saw service with other boats in the Company's service. His health of recent years had not been good and in July, 1926, he was granted special sick leave.

Capt. Mackinnon was forty-nine years of age. He is survived by a widow and children who were with him at Melbourne at the time of his death.

WORK FOR THE POWERS.

Vital Interests Of Chinese People To Come First.

Mr. J. O. P. Bland, in an article entitled "China's Future" in the "Morning Post," writes:—"By putting the vital interests of the Chinese people before the selfish interests of political factions and the adoption of certain concerted measures not necessarily extensive or expensive to restrict the movements of bandits and rival forces on certain main lines of communication, the Powers could soon effect a great improvement in the present deplorable conditions.... Japan appears ready and willing to co-operate to this end."—Reuter.

ARGENTINE VISITOR.

FOREIGN MINISTER NOW IN LONDON.

London, Yesterday.

The Argentine Minister for Foreign Affairs, Dr. Gallardo, who has been to Spain and France, arrived in London to-night and was met by a representative of the Foreign Secretary and an official of the Foreign Office. Although his visit is private, Dr. Gallardo will take the opportunity to express the appreciation of the Argentine Government for the raising of the status of the British Legation at Buenos Aires to that of an embassy.

On Tuesday he will be received by the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace, and will lunch with their Majesties. His other engagements this week include luncheon with Sir Austen Chamberlain when the latter returns from Geneva.—British-Wireless Service.

A NOMINAL FINE.

PILLS ON PORCELAIN DEALER'S DESK.

Kwong Man-fu, who was last week remanded by Mr. R. E. Lindsell on a charge of unlawful possession of 56 pills which contained heroin, was again before the Court this morning.

Mr. A. E. Hall who appeared for the defence entered a plea of "guilty" in the accused's behalf.

Mr. H. A. Taylor, Assistant Superintendent of Imports and Exports, who was present in Court, asked by the Magistrate for his views of the case, said that he knew very little with regard to the facts, and he could speak only of what he had found in the examination of the pills. He said that the heroin found in each pill was eight-tenths of one per cent. of the weight of the pill, and the total weight of heroin in the whole of the 56 pills was 1.7 grains.

Revenue Officer Grimmett, who prosecuted, stated that the pills were not concealed in any way, but were contained in two bottles, mixed with other pills on top of the accused's desk in the porcelain dealer's shop.

Mr. Hall said that the accused was the managing partner of the Yee Wah Porcelain Company of No. 113 Jervois Street, a firm in a big way of business. In the shop there were four Shanghai and four Cantonese folk. The accused suspected that one of the Shanghai folk was the owner of the pills which he had procured for his own consumption, but as there was no proof of this, and in view of the fact that the bottles of pills were found on his desk, the accused thought that it was best that he should plead guilty.

Mr. Lindsell pointed out that the accused was not necessarily guilty if he did not know they were in the shop.

Mr. Hall emphasised, however, that the accused was not trafficking in the pills.

R. O. Grimmett stated that he has not suggested for a moment that the accused was trafficking in the pills.

In the circumstances the Magistrate decided to impose the nominal fine of $10, and ordered the confiscation of the pills.

SUNNING CHANGES.

PRESS GANGS ACTIVE IN RIVER PORTS.

TROOPS FROM CANTON.

Pakkai, Kongmoon, Friday. Taking with them all the cash they could lay hands on in the local revenue bureaux and in the branches of the Central Bank, the 13th division of Kwangsi troops have evacuated the Sze Yap area and are now making for Yeung-kong and Yeungchun, along the south-western coast of Kwangtung province.

Press gangs were sent up to round up the required number of coolies, causing a panic in the three river ports of Sunning.

Ironsides' Artillery.

The Canton troops (comprising a division of "Papersides," i.e., from the 5th Army in Canton, and a brigade from the new 2nd division under Hsieh Yo) are pursuing leisurely, having reached the junction of the river at the three ports.

The crisis having passed over and the territory into the hands of the Ironsides, Mr. Fung Pak-lau has taken over the seals of office as Mayor of Kongmoon city. New magistrates have arrived at the Sanwui and Sunning districts.

About ten field guns and a brigade of gunners have arrived at this port from Canton, presumably for use in following up the Kwangsi troops.

Further Hostilities?

Trains are again running on the Sunning Railway, the damage wrought by the Kwangsi garrison to cut off pursuit having been temporarily repaired.

Two gunboats have arrived here for Canton as well as a flotilla of armed launches. It is thought that the smaller craft will be sent up to the three ports for operations against the Kwangsi troops, and to cover the crossing off the river at Ngau-wan where the railway ferry was put out of action by the retreating Kwangsi men.

Shelter in the Customs.

Having completed their work as troop transports, a large number of tow-boats commandeered at Canton by the Ironsides have been released.

The situation is quiet generally but labour unions, taking advantage of the fall of a moderate regime, are showing signs of activity again.

Staffs of the Chinese Maritime Customs and of the foreign hongers here took shelter in the Customs compound the night before the Cantonese troops arrived, an attack by pirates being feared as the Kwangsi regulars had withdrawn. There were only about 100 all told of police, railway guards and volunteer militia, and H.M.S. "Robin" was anchored alongside the Customs jetty and nothing happened.

Pirates Thwarted.

Then about fifty pirates sneaked down the next day, travelling in the s.s. "Wing On" from Kowloon and Kamechuk. Others came from Chiulin and Hotong which are well-known pirate haunts.

It was known that a large number of Chinese who had made their pile in America had returned by steamboat from Hong Kong, on their way home, and had been held up by the railway being torn up in places. They were staying in hotels and boarding houses and the pirates had planned to kidnap the emigrants, taking them away either in sampans or overland to Kongmei.

Just before the pirates were about to act, the Papersides arrived from Canton and the danger was averted.

Confidence Restored.

Another fire broke out in Kongmoon at night through carelessness and there was a simultaneous blaze in Chushan, opposite Pakkai. Both took over an hour to subdue.

That confidence has been restored is evident from the rise in value of notes issued by the Central Bank, which are now only 5 per cent. below silver 20 cent pieces. Premium on Hong Kong bank notes, in exchange for the latter, has receded to 27 per cent.—Our own correspondent.

EMPIRE BROADCASTING.

An Exceptional Success.

Messages from London on October 28 to Sydney recorded what is regarded as the most successful wireless broadcast in history during that week-end. Throughout the 105 minutes of the programme broadcasted from Sydney only 15 minutes were bad—about the time dawn was breaking. With the exception of that period the programme was magnificent, and the volume might have been that of the London station, 2LO, itself, while the strength and purity on many occasions exceeded that of 2LO. The broadcast is regarded as definitely marking a new wireless epoch.

SUSPECTED PIRACY.

"TUNG ON" ARRIVES SAFE AND SOUND.

CHINESE SAILOR'S LOYALTY.

News of a wireless message received in the Colony from the s.s. "Lungshan" that the well-known river steamer, the "Tung On,"—plying between Hong Kong and Canton—had been attacked by pirates spread like the proverbial wildfire throughout the Chinese quarters of the city on Saturday evening, with the result that a large crowd assembled at the Hong Kong-Canton and Macao Steamboat Company's wharf shortly after 9 o'clock on Saturday night.

Excitement was accelerated by the fact that Chief Detective Inspector Reynolds, Detective Inspector Lane, and a number of Police officials were on the scene, and also on account of the presence of an R.A.M.C. motor ambulance and a detachment of men of that Corps.

A notice flashed upon the scene of the Queen's Theatre earlier in the evening recalling all ratings of H.M.S. "Seraph" added further flames of an already well-ignited conflagration.

There can be little doubt that the prompt action and unquestionable loyalty of a Chinese seaman—a member of the crew of the s.s. "Tung On"—was the means of preventing a well-planned piracy on that vessel during her voyage from Canton to the Colony on Saturday evening.

Fortunately no actual piracy took place, but it has become increasingly evident that once again, the British Navy with the aid of wireless telegraphy, has proved her efficiency in responding to the call of ships in distress.

Within a few minutes of the news reaching the Colony, a message was flashed across the screen of the Queen's Theatre—thanks, of course, to the courtesy of the management of Hong Kong Amusements, Ltd.—recalling all ratings of the H.M.S. "Seraph," and shortly afterward that vessel left the Colony for the West River.

The First News.

The first news of the suspected piracy was received in the Colony at 5.43 p.m., a message despatched by Captain G. H. Madden, of the s.s. "Lungshan." This message stated that he had received a message from the master of the s.s. "Tung On" intimating that the latter vessel expected to be pirated off Sampanchau. According to the message received here, the "Tung On" would have been in the vicinity of Sampanchau at 7 o'clock last night.

The s.s. "Tung On" is a river boat on the Hong Kong-Canton run, of some 800 tons, the property of the Tung On Steamship Co., Ltd., of Connaught Road Central.

Inquiries made at the Hong Kong office of the steamship company early on Saturday night merely confirmed the wireless message already referred to. It was not until the arrival of the "Lungshan" that further information was forthcoming.

The situation was intensified shortly after 8 o'clock by information received to the effect that the "Tung On" had actually been pirated. This, fortunately, proved to be false.

The fact that the "Lung Shan," a faster vessel than the "Tung On," and one which had left Canton earlier, had been the first to convey the news, added further interest to the situation. Had the "Lungshan" left later than the "Tung On" the former vessel would probably have overtaken the "Tung On" at approximately the time of the reported piracy, thereby explaining the cause of no wireless message having been received from the "Tung On."

"Lungshan" Arrives. The "Lungshan" arrived in port shortly after 10 p.m., and was immediately boarded by Chief Inspector Reynolds and other Police officers.

When interviewed by a representative, Captain Madden stated that the first news he received was a wireless message from the "Tung On" at 5.9 p.m. That message stated: "Expect to be pirated off Sampanchau—Muir."

Captain Madden said that he felt surprised that pirates should choose such a venue, as it was in the immediate neighbourhood of Bocca Tigris Forts and there would be a full moon at that hour.

Communication With H.M. Navy.

Continuing his story, Captain Madden said that he immediately communicated with the British Naval authorities at Hong Kong. Wireless communication was maintained both with the Navy and the s.s. "Tung On" until 9.45 p.m. The last wireless message he received was from H.M.S. "Hawkins" at that hour.

Questioned with regard to the despatch of H.M.S. "Seraph" Captain Madden said that no reference was made to that effect in any message received from the Hong Kong Naval authorities. This statement also applied to messages intercepted by his wireless operator.

Captain Muir's Story. Interviewed shortly after the arrival of the "Tung On," Captain Muir said: "I first got news of the yarn at five minutes to four in the afternoon. I immediately saw the senior Naval Officer at Canton, who agreed with me that the Indian guard on my ship was absolutely useless, and unless trouble was to be avoided, an escort would be necessary. Unfortunately, no ship was available as an escort. We discussed the matter, and came to the conclusion that the only thing to do was to keep in close touch with both Hong Kong and Canton."

At Change of Watch.

Continuing, Captain Muir said that his information was that a piracy would be attempted at the change of watch, namely, at 7 o'clock, which would practically coincide with the vessel's arrival at Sampanchau. He learned that a stranger—a Chinese attired in a long gown—had boarded the ship shortly before the advertised hour of departure from Canton and had approached a member of the crew with a view to the latter accompanying the former to a tea-shop for a chat. The sailor had refused to comply with the stranger's request, but conversation had apparently followed, the stranger asking questions regarding the engine room and the wires over the bridge. The sailor had replied that he knew nothing about the engine room, but the wires over the bridge were part of a "foreign pidgin" which enabled the Captain to keep in touch with other ships and the land. The sailor communicated with Captain Muir who, however, did not fully understand what he meant. He, Captain Muir, however, decided to take special precautions.

Questioned as to what he meant by "special precautions," Captain Muir stated that special care was taken as regards the locking and unlocking of the grilles. Captain Muir agreed that, from the point of view of pirates, there were only two classes, namely, the officers on the bridge, who were inside the grille, and passengers of all classes who were outside of same.

"Something in It."

Asked pointedly as to whether he thought there was really something in the affair, Captain Muir said that he was quite convinced that a piracy had been planned. Captain Muir was also of the opinion that had it not been for the reticence displayed on the part of the Chinese sailor when questioned by the stranger the piracy would undoubtedly have been attempted.

Officers Disagree.

Questioned with regard to the reported venue of the proposed piracy, Captain Muir expressed the opinion that that particular point in the river—approximately half way between Hong Kong and Canton—would be most advantageous to the pirates and he did not think that the pirates would pay much attention to the Bocca Tigris Forts.

It is unnecessary to state that the Police were especially vigilant as regards searching the Chinese passengers of the suspected vessel. No arrests have so far been made.

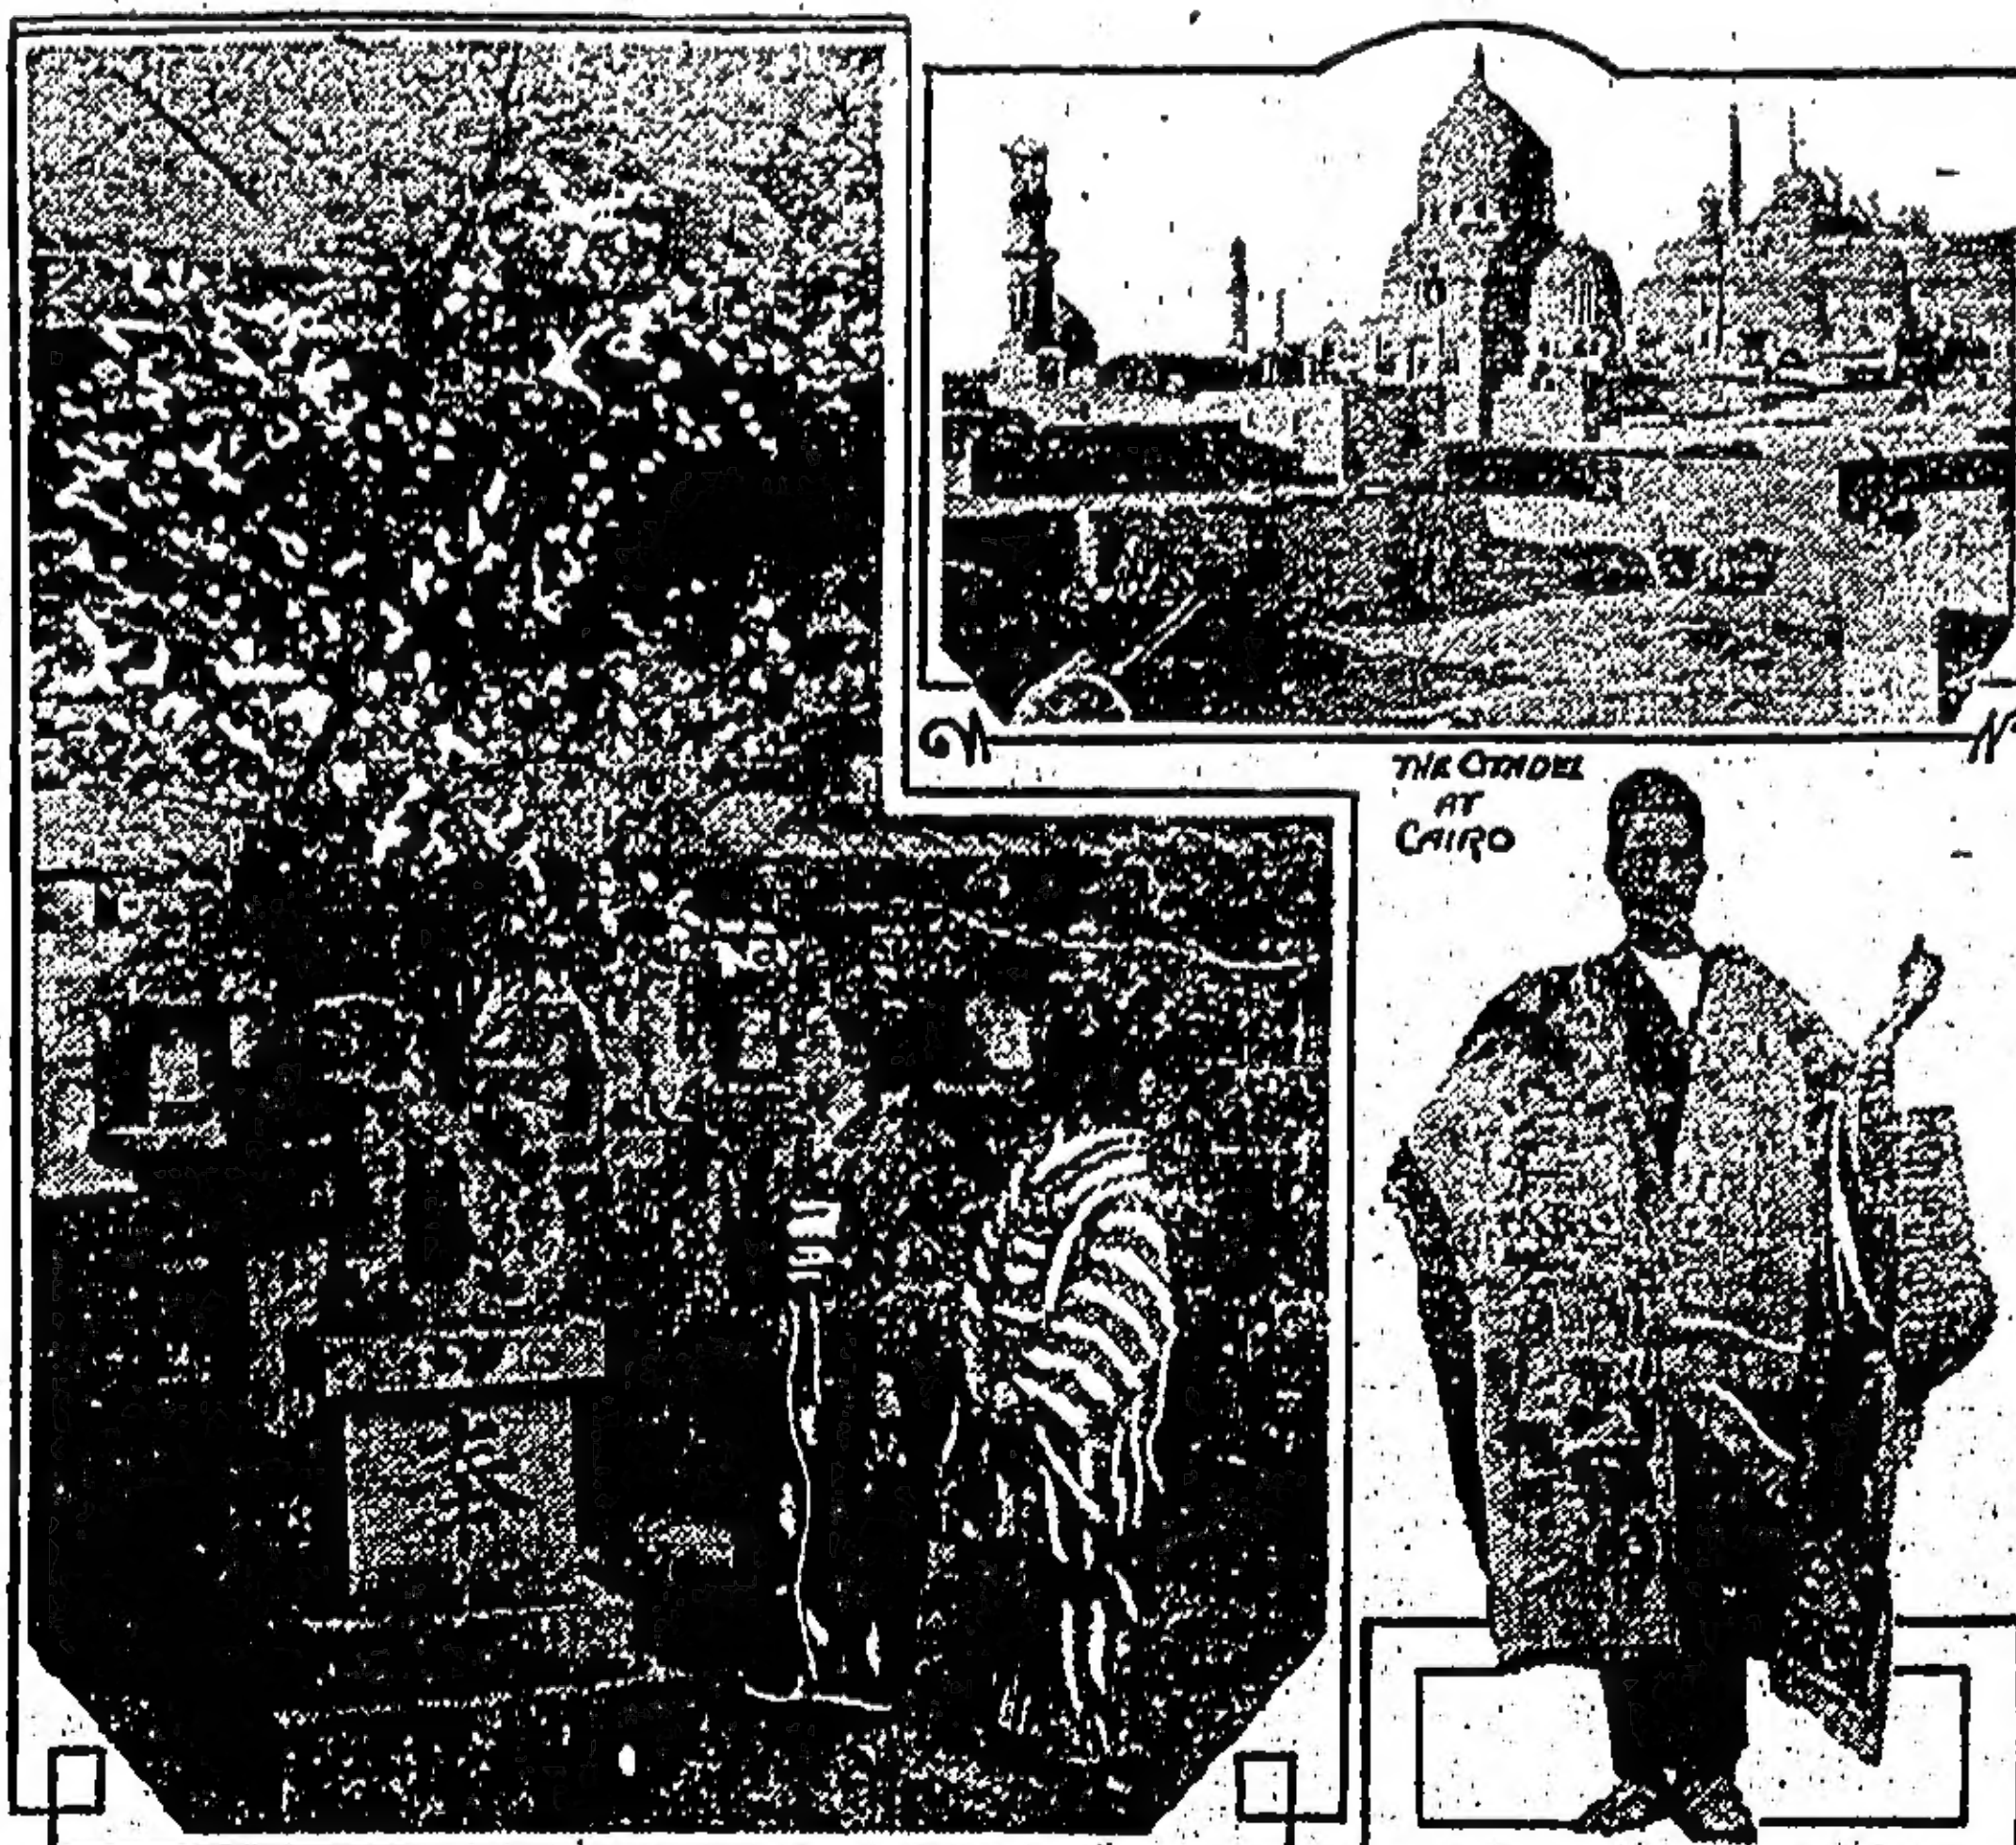

It is learnt upon good authority that at a recent meeting of the Guilds concerned, a circular letter was sent to the masters of vessels plying between Hong Kong and Canton advising them to take special precautions in regard to their ships—as to insurance against piracy and, according to Chinese sources, usually reliable, Captain Muir is reported to be one of the officers who replied to the effect that he did not consider it expedient to advise his owners to incur the necessary heavy expense that such a course would require.

London, November 24.—The Cunard Steam Ship Company, Limited, is considering the construction of a new ship, which will be the world's largest liner. She is expected to have a tonnage of 60,000, and will be 1,000 feet long. The estimated cost is between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000.

Colors that run rampant in the four corners of the world provide the contrasts that make a lasting impression on the memory of the world traveler. Districts wholly different in their color scheme are but a few miles apart and the keynote of their striking contrasts is color. Today we hear much about color psychology, its effect on the moods of people and of animals; and how it affects temperament and even health.

Colors of the scattered ports of the world that burst from quaint bazaars and the costumes of the inhabitants on the streets, vie with those of nature. The landscapes and seas differ; colors in architecture; and the colors of princes, peasant and pauper; gladden the eye and make the blood run riot in unison.

From New York on December 2 the Canadian Pacific steamship Empress of Australia, commenced another cruise to the contracting ports of the world. This vessel will make an entire circuit of the globe anchoring in 66 ports and visiting 21 different countries, covering during the four-months cruise approximately 25,400 miles.

Funchal the Capital of Madeira, and the first port of call is radiant with gaily colored houses and gardens. Costumes here are likewise brilliant. Naples with the wonderful blue of its sea and sky, with Mount Vesuvius at one side and the Islands of Capri, Ischia and Procida in the distance, affords a vision of loveliness.

CORRESPONDENCE.

A BELATED NOTICE.

[To the Editor of the "China Mail."] Sir—I received on the 8th inst. the following notice which refers to martial law regulation promulgated by the Canton authorities as long ago as November 17. This notice was not issued by the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs till December 3, and circulated amongst those concerned on December 15.

From Commissioner for Foreign Affairs (No. 89), Canton, December 3, 1927.

Sir—I have the Honour to inform you that I am in receipt of a letter from the Temporary Military Affairs Committee stating: "This Committee has passed the following three Martial Law regulations:—

1) Martial Law is proclaimed from the 17th November.
 2) Every day from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. Chinese and Foreign ships are prohibited from entering and going out.

3) Foreign ships will temporarily not be searched. The Commanders of the Bocca Tigris & Chang Chow (Whampoa) Ports have respectively been instructed to put into force the above regulations.

"It is requested that you will ask the Foreign Consuls at Canton to notify their naval and merchant ships of the above."

(Sd.) Chu Chao-hsin,
 Commissioner of Foreign Affairs.

From the British Consulate-General dated December 5, 1927.

The notice is not conspicuous for clearness. Does the regulation refer to the stretch between Bocca Tigris from Canton or Whampoa or the run between Canton and Whampoa, or the whole run from Canton?

Yours, etc.,
 Mariner.

Hong Kong, Dec. 10.
 [Presumably it refers to the run from Bocca Tigris to Whampoa and vice-versa.]

SMALLER NAVIES.

OTHER INTERNATIONAL PROBLEM.

GENEVA MEETING.

Rugby, Saturday.

Sir Ronald Graham, British Ambassador at Rome is visiting Sir Austen Chamberlain at Geneva today. Sir Ronald has not seen the British Foreign Secretary for over a year and the latter's presence in Geneva offers a favourable opportunity for discussion of questions on which the Ambassador has intimate knowledge.

Mr. Bridgeman, First Lord of Admiralty, referring to the United States navy proposal in a speech last night, said "I do not blame the Americans in the least. They are a great and rich country and are perfectly entitled to build whatever battleships they care for their own defence. We, in order to show our sincerity in what we proposed at Geneva, have knocked off two cruisers. The Americans so far as we can make out are going in for their full programme. I do not dispute that they are building for their own defence. Therefore we have no reason to complain. We have no reason to alter our own plans because of that. We do not intend to enter into building competition with any other country if we can possibly help it. Do not let us watch with jealous eyes every battleship which is planned but let us maintain our desire for peace and our firm determination not to build anything more than is required for our own defence. We have now reduced our navy to as low strength as is compatible with our safety."

Elevation Question.

When the question of increasing elevation of turret guns in the United States battleships "Oklahoma" and "Nevada" was considered in the House of Representatives at Washington yesterday, it was decided to make financial provision for such alterations if they were found to be in consonance with terms of the Washington Treaty. In connection with this question it is recalled that the British Government, in 1925, made an earnest appeal "That the Government of the United States should not impose upon the peoples of the countries concerned the burden of competition in armament which are deemed to result from execution of the proposal to elevate turret guns on retained capital ships of the United States, it being considered that even if arguments can be found in support of the contrary, interpretation of the Treaty having the effect of carrying out such proposals would be incompatible with its intentions."

Acting on instructions from Geneva, the British, French and Italian military attaches or their deputies in Warsaw and Riga have proceeded to the Polish Lithuanian frontier to acquaint themselves with military dispositions in that area, and to assure themselves that there is no danger of incidents likely to complicate pacific settlement of dispute. The League Council's suggestion that this should be done was welcomed by representatives of both the Polish and Lithuanian Governments. The presence and evidence of independent observers on the spot will, it is believed, have a reassuring effect—British Wireless Service.

Charges of Graft.

The Senate has ordered an immediate investigation by a special committee of the Senate into the charges published that Mexico paid three United States Senators $120,000.

LABOUR MARKET SPOILED?

London, Saturday.

Miles of mangrove swamps and poisonous black mud must be cleared and dredged, says the second article in the London "Daily Telegraph" on the Singapore Naval Base, before its four mile frontage on deep water and a sea wall after it can be erected. Inside the present ill-defined shore, a dock of a thousand feet long will be constructed to accommodate the largest battleship afloat and four cruisers simultaneously. Probably a decade will have passed before the whole construction is finished. Local rubber planters complain that the Government is spoiling the labour market by overpaying Tamil and Chinese workers.—Reuter.

London, Yesterday.

The Eastern Telegraph cableship "Colonia" left the Thames to lay two new cables between Alexandria and Port Said, which will connect the new underground lines that are being laid between Port Said and Suez. Hong Kong, Monday, Dec. 12, 1927.

IN THE THROES AGAIN.

Canton is once again in the throes. The Reds have secured possession of the city and declared that everything Communist is to take precedence. Unhappy Canton! No sooner does it appear to be on the threshold of better things—better Government, better trade—than the whole apple cart is upset and all has to be done over again from the very beginning. It is to put it as mildly as possible, annoying and irritating to the merchants of this Colony. Time and again expectations of an improvement in trade between Canton and Hong Kong have been expressed and not without good reason, and then another General appears on the scene and another clash of arms is the result. No sooner does that General look as if he is determined to keep the lawless elements in their place than he himself is the victim of a coup and has to flee for his life. The first reports of yesterday's fighting gave the impression that it would be confined to the so-called Ironsides and a number of units who had, willy-nilly, joined them after the November coup as soon as General Li Chai-sum had turned his back. Whatever the actual cause of the first clash yesterday it is clear that it was taken full advantage of by the Reds, who were known to be flocking to Canton for the very purpose of effecting another coup and making the city Red in word and in deed. How long they will be permitted to carry on the Red regime is another matter. The unpleasant fact remains that they are in possession, and are likely for a time to make it very distasteful—and, of course, most unsafe—for any who do not agree with their unorthodox views and with their way of imposing Moscow's will on the people not entirely unsuited for it.

Meanwhile, merchants in Hong Kong have, apparently, got to grin and bear it, as they have had to many times in the recent past. Trade cannot but be immensely dislocated, shipping between the two centres must considerably suffer, whilst the Red regime holds sway. The hand of the clock of trade progress between Hong Kong and Canton has been put back, as it has been so often since 1925. And it seems that we can only wait with what degree of patience we may still possess for the Reds to be ousted in turn and another war lord step in with the same ethics and principles as so many of his predecessors—the exploitation of the city for his own selfish ends. Where it will all end, nobody knows and nobody dare predict. It is no concern of ours save that our trade is once again menaced and, maybe, British property and British lives jeopardised.

HEAVY SEIZURE BY POLICE.

I.R.A. DUMP?

Belfast, Yesterday.
A sensation has been created by the biggest seizure of munitions ever made in Belfast. The Police, after searching for two days, entered a vacant house in Whitelock Road and found rifles, revolvers, bayonets, machine-gun, an enormous quantity of explosives, including bombs and 17,000 rounds of rifle ammunition.

The contents of this arsenal were removed in three lorries. It is reported that the house is a central dump of the I.R.A. No arrests have been made.—Reuter.

U. S. NAVY IN CHINA.

SECRETARY ON PROTECTION OF NATIONALS.

Washington, Yesterday.
The Secretary of the Navy, in his annual report, states:—

The protection of Americans in China had been most difficult and required the greatest tact, patience and calm judgment in the face of tremendous provocation and insult.

The principal clash had occurred at Nanking on March 24, when it cannot be doubted that an attack on foreigners had been premeditated and carefully planned by organized troops. Similarly, there was no doubt that the prompt and energetic action of the British and American fleets prevented a wholesale massacre of foreigners.—Reuter's American Service.

AIRMAN KILLED.

FATAL MOTOR CYCLING ACCIDENT.

KOWLOON NIGHT RIDE.

Leading Aircraftman French of the R.A.F., stationed at the Cameron Road quarters, was the victim of a motor fatality in Prince Edward Road, Kowloon, on Saturday night. The deceased was riding in the sidecar of a Harley-Davidson motor cycle combination driven by Mr. D. S. Pethick, when the machine struck a heap of earth on the road, and French was thrown heavily and instantly killed.

It appears that Mr. Pethick met the deceased at a dance at Kowloon Dock, and they left together at 11.15 p.m. to go for a spin in Mr. Pethick's motor cycle in the direction of Kowloon City. They turned into Prince Edward Road without incident, until the machine got to the junction of Montague Ede Avenue, at which point the road was narrowed considerably by a heap of piled earth.

As the road was not well lighted, Mr. Pethick did not notice the earth heap until the machine was almost upon it. The cycle struck the side of the heap. What happened to French at the impact is not clear, but the machine continued for some distance after hitting the obstruction, and when it was eventually stopped by Mr. Pethick, who had managed to keep his seat, the sidecar was empty.

The deceased's body was found on the road some 70 feet away from the heap of earth. It is not clear whether French jumped from the sidecar or was thrown out, but it was evident from the condition of the body that the deceased must have hit the ground violently with his head and killed instantaneously. How the body happened to be such a considerable distance from the spot where the accident occurred it is difficult to explain, unless the deceased was dragged by the machine after falling out.

Mr. Pethick was fortunate to escape with minor injuries, but the motor cycle was considerably damaged.

French's body was removed to the Kowloon Hospital as soon as assistance could be secured, but when life was pronounced to be extinct it was taken to the mortuary.

The funeral will take place this afternoon.

DR. WAN MAN-KAI.

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT PASSES AWAY.

The death occurred yesterday morning at his residence at No. 28 Caine Road of Dr. Wan Man-kai, a well-known Chinese medical practitioner.

The late Dr. Wan Man-kai was born in Hong Kong and was 58 years ago. He was one of the first Chinese doctors to practise Western methods of healing in the Colony.

Dr. Wan was educated at the Central School in Hong Kong, and later at the Tientsin Medical College. On leaving Tientsin, he proceeded to Canton where he served in the Canton Hospital for a few years as a colleague of the late Dr. John G. Kerr, who founded the hospital, as well as the Canton Asylum.

A few days ago, Dr. Wan contracted influenza and his condition rapidly became worse. He passed away at 5.55 a.m. yesterday, death being due to cerebral congestion and influenza.

Dr. Wan leaves a widow, five sons and two daughters. Of the sons, two are medical practitioners, these being Drs. Y. S. Wan and Ying Wan. Another son, Mr. I. S. Wan, is a chemist, and one is studying dentistry in London, while the fifth is receiving his education at St. Stephen's College.

The funeral took place this afternoon.

CARGO ON FIRE.

CARGO IN LOCAL GODOWN DESTROYED.

A fire which broke out early yesterday morning, caused considerable damage to general cargo stored in a godown in the western district. The scene of the fire was in Sai On Lane, off Des Vaux Road West, and near to the Tai Ping Theatre.

The alarm reached the Central Fire Station at 1.27 a.m., and two engines were despatched. One machine from Kennedy Town also responded to the call. As the outbreak threatened to be serious, a call for additional help was sent out, and Wanchai despatched an engine, which arrived on the scene in time to render valuable assistance.

A stiff fight which lasted nearly an hour followed, during which the firefighters had to attend to the congested neighbourhood as well as tackle the flames and confine them to the godown. In the end the fire men were successful in the uneven struggle and the flames were extinguished, but not before severe damage was done to cargo stored in the godown.

P'RAPS-P'RAPS NOT!

They appear to have a "Rose" Day at Canton yesterday.

A Scotsman went to see a greyhound race. He stood for a moment, then went up to a bookie and said, "Put me a shilling on the rabbit."

Little Mabel came running into her mother, dragging Bobby, who showed signs of having come off worse in an encounter with a mosquito, after her.

"Oh, mummie, mummie, look!" she cried, the symptoms of the recent epidemic that had run through the house still fresh in her mind. "Bobbie's been bitten by a mease."

The youth applying for apprenticeship in the C.A.'s office seemed quite an eligible candidate.

The manager in scanning his various "references" did not, however, seem unduly impressed.

As a matter of fact, too, one was from a Band of Hope, one from a P.S.A. organisation, and two from parsons.

"Yes, my lad," commented the other, "so far, so good no doubt. But before we discuss anything further would you mind bringing a couple from some folks who see you during the week?"

The "Meteorological Magazine" in lighter vein:—
"Dirty days hath September, April, June and November. From January until May, the rain it raineth every day. All the rest have thirty-one without a blessed gleam of sun. If any of them had two and thirty."

They'd be just as wet—and twice as dirty."

Mrs. Spalding, the only retiring member of Dalkeith Town Council seeking re-election, opened her address at the electors' meeting with a good story.

She had been looking up an eighteenth century dictionary, she said, wherein she found the definition of "statesman" as "a man who gives of his best to, and works for, the good of his country."

"Stateswoman" was defined as "a woman who interferes in politics."

A resident in a street which was undergoing repairs protested about a pile of broken paving outside his gate.

"Can't you take this away?" he shouted to one of the men on the job—an Irishman.

"Where will I take it?" asked Paddy, with a grin. Whereupon the man told him clearly and forcefully why he might take it.

"Haden't I rather take it to Heaven?" was Paddy's retort. "It would be more out of your way there!"

"Don't bring me any more bills," said the husband, in despair. "I can't face them."

"I don't want you to face them, darling," replied the wife. "I only want you to foot them."

Teacher: "Take this sentence: 'Drive the cow out of the field.' What mood?"

Bobby Bright: "The cow."

The wife of one of the newly rich went out to dinner one night. Her hostess was musical. "Would you like a sonata before we go in to dinner?" she asked. "Well, I had a couple before I started," was the answer, "but I think I could manage another."

An ardent visitor was calling on his country sweetheart. Accidentally, he dropped a pawn ticket on the floor when reaching for a handkerchief which the girl had dropped.

"What's that?" asked the observant maiden who had never seen a sample of the familiar pasteboard.

The youth turned a brilliant red, but honesty was his policy. "Just a pawn ticket," he replied. "Then why didn't you get two, so that we could both go?" asked the innocent.

"Lend me a quid. I want to pawn my watch."

"Then you don't need any money."

"Oh, yes; I've got to buy the watch first."

Lion Tamer: "Ah, you wretch! I thought you had some vile scheme! You want to pinch my lion!"

Tommy had just arrived home from school, crying broken-heartedly.

"What's the matter?" asked his mother in alarm.

"Teacher walloped me somethin' cruel yesterday for eatin' in school," he managed between his sobs.

"But why are you crying about it to-day, Tommy?" said mother.

"Tommy gave out a great job 'Because you were out yesterday," he replied.

OFFER TO CHIANG.

TO RESUME NORTHERN HOSTILITIES.

WANG MAY RETIRE.

Shanghai, Yesterday. Twenty-seven members were present at yesterday's meeting at General Chiang Kai-shek's residence. General Li Chai-sum, General Li Tsung-jen, Mr. Sun Fo and Mr. Wu Tsz-wei were among the notable absentees. Mr. Yu Yu-jen was chairman.

Mr. Wang Ching-wei urged General Chiang Kai-shek to resume the generalissimo and to carry out the anti-northern expedition. A resolution to that effect was unanimously passed. General Chiang Kai-shek said he would consider the proposition.

The meeting then elected General Chiang Kai-shek to make preparations for the fourth plenary conference at Nanking and agreed on the re-organization of the Military Council.—Reuter.

To Heal the Split.

Shanghai, Saturday. As the outcome of several conferences of the Kuomintang leaders it is understood that General Chiang Kai-shek has accepted the post of Generalissimo of the Nationalist army, while Mr. Wang Ching-wei has offered to retire from politics, if necessary, to heal the split caused by Canton's coup d'etat of November 17.—Reuter.

Further Sessions.

Shanghai, Friday. General Chiang Kai-shek acted as chairman at the fourth plenary session of the Central Committee of the Kuomintang held yesterday. A number of resolutions were passed, among them being one that the Nationalist Government should be re-organized and that arrangements should be made for further sessions of the Conference. These will be held at Nanking on dates which have yet to be decided.—British Naval Wireless.

Kiuikang Happenings.

Kiuikang, Yesterday. Consequent on the Naval Guard action, indignation meetings are being held by the local military and coolies are being prevented from returning to work.—British Naval Wireless.

Kiuikang, Friday.

It became necessary to disperse coolies who had gathered on the pontoon of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire following the removal of the men. Coolies were loitering about the pontoon and they were moved away by the British Naval Guard. After this, they attempted to tear down the connection between the pontoon and the shore and they were then dispersed. Three coolies were slightly injured. The situation is now quiet.—British Naval Wireless.

Communists in Hankow.

Hankow, Yesterday. Communist agents are engaged in stirring up trouble in the native city and there is a general area of unrest.—British Naval Wireless.

Hankow, Friday.

A report is current that one of General Cheng Chien's generals (of the Nanking Nationalist army) has deserted, taking with him several divisions of troops.

General Hu Tsung-tu conferred with the Consul-General yesterday and stated that the large number of communists active in the neighbourhood might create trouble at the race meeting. The latter passed off without incident, however. It would appear that General Hu Tsung-tu is himself an anti-communist.

General Ho Chien of the Hankow army is now retreating further into Hunan province.—British Naval Wireless.

Northern Cruiser.

Shanghai, Friday. A Northern cruiser is reported to have been seen cruising off the mouth of the Yangtze River during the last 48 hours.—British Naval Wireless.

25TH ANNIVERSARY.

COOLIDGE SUGGESTS AIR CONFERENCE.

Washington, Saturday. President Coolidge has written to the Civil Aeronautics Conference which is at present in session here, recommending an international civil aviation conference to be held at Washington on December 28, which is the twenty-fifth anniversary of man's first flight (by Orville Wright) in a heavier-than-air machine.—Reuter's American Service.

DOOMED TO FAIL.

AGA KHAN ON PROPOSED BOYCOTT.

Bombay, Saturday. His Highness the Aga Khan, the spiritual leader of the powerful Muslim sect, has condemned the proposed boycott of the Statutory Commission and has declared the boycott to be foredoomed to failure.

CANTON TURNS "RED"

The 5th Army of Honam, which is under General Li Fook-lum and is known as the Paper-sides, did nothing towards helping the Ironsides whom they joined in the last crisis.

Signal for Rising.

Firing outside the eastern suburb early yesterday morning was the general signal for the rising.

Information reaching the Police on Saturday night was that the extremist general federation of labour unions—there is a moderate labour organisation of the same name—had called a meeting, the object of which was to present some far-fetched demands to the Government, refusal of which was to lead to the rising.

Banks and Shops Looted.

Before the Police could raid the meeting, the rising had broken out.

All traffic in the streets of Canton was suspended but foreigners were not molested.

Premises in the rich western suburb were set ablaze and a good many of the banks and shops were looted.

ON THE RIVER.

Seamen Called Out to Join the Unions.

No trouble occurred on the River but streams of refugees were seen fleeing from the east to the west.

Fire broke out last night in houses at Wongsha, which is beyond Shameen, adjoining the western suburb, but Shameen was left alone.

When word reached the crews of the Hong Kong steamboats that the seamen's union had joined the Communists, the men left either voluntarily or by inducement.

The steamboats were deserted by their Chinese crews about three o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Volunteer Stokers.

With the help of Naval ratings, the "Sai On" was removed from her wharf to a buoy to avoid interference. With a number of Chinese volunteers in the stoke-room, the officers under Captain Campbell brought the ship down to Hong Kong, arriving shortly after one o'clock this morning.

The "Taishan" was also taken into the stream from her wharf by Naval ratings. She left Canton early this morning for Hong Kong and she is followed by the "Kinsan". It is expected that the seamen of these boats have also gone ashore in Canton.

Latest News.

Only the "Yuet On" sailed from Hong Kong last night, the others stopping over. This morning the "Fatsan" went up as usual.

Latest news is that the Ironsides are frantically calling their commands back from the West River and from Kongmoon. General Li Fook-lum's army is guarding Honam where martial law has been declared and the Navy remains loyal.

The Communists still hold the city. Fires have not been all put out and there was still some disturbances last night and this morning. The number of civilian casualties is unknown.

FOREIGNERS SAFE.

Members of Government in Honam.

Canton, Yesterday. Up to the present there has been no interference with foreigners.

Members of the Canton (Ironside) Government have gone across Canton harbour to Honam, on the south side of the River.

Looting and burning is taking place all over the city. The Communists appear to be at the back of the rising. Absence of the regular troops from the city has allowed the Communists to carry on without hindrance and the Police are powerless as most of them, it is reported, have been disbanded.—British Naval Wireless.

SUPERSTITION'S PART.

The Thin Dog's Effect on "Fung Shui."

Superstition plays a part in the scene of the sharp engagement between the Ironsides and their new brigade.

The new brigade, comprising a motley rabble under a former Cantonese brigadier, was stationed at Sau Kau Leng, outside the eastern suburb of the city.

In Chinese, Sau Kau Leng means the "Thin Dog Range". The skyline bears some resemblance to a half-starving canine and was believed in pre-Republic days to have considerable influence on the "fung shui."

What Happened Before.

The Manchu dynasty, went as far as ordering an annual expedition on the advent of spring, against the Dog. The Viceroy had to ride in person to see a series of volleys discharged at the poor Dog to remind him that he cannot cause trouble.

In the last few years, the observance degenerated into an excuse for the officer in charge to put in a bill for ammunition expended.

Two years before the Revolution, the observance ceased and then the Manchus were forced to abdicate!

CAPTAIN'S STORY.

How the "Sai On" Came Down to Hong Kong.

Interviewed by the "China Mail" this morning, Captain Campbell of the "Sai On" said that while a political disturbance was in progress the Chinese Seamen's Union at about 1.30 p.m. called out the whole of the Chinese crew, including the seamen, firemen, pilots, quarter-master, cooks, stewards, etc.

He thereupon reported to the Senior Naval Officer of the British Patrol on the West River, on H.M.S. "Tarantula," who sent over an armed guard, four A.B.'s and two stokers, who helped the officers to take the ship from the wharf at the bund to a buoy in the River.

At 4.50 p.m., Captain Campbell sailed from Canton, Mr. P. H. Going (the mate) assisting him in navigation. Mr. J. Dwyer (chief engineer) and Mr. J. Simpson (2nd engineer) did their own stoking, with the assistance of "amateur firemen."

LOOTING & BURNING.

No Anti-Foreignism Apparent.

The following telegrams were received from a reliable source at Canton this morning and refer to yesterday's happenings:—

Communists numbering about 20,000 are in complete control of the city and are looting and burning, members of the Government are all in Honam which has not yet been taken.

Communists and Red labour unionists, taking advantage of the absence of troops on the West River front, seized control of Canton to-day. They are assisted by a certain number of revolted troops. They have disarmed the police and called out crews of all river steamers. Communication with Hong Kong is temporarily dislocated. So far there is no anti-foreign agitation.

Steamers Held Up.

Owing to intimidation difficulty experienced in the sailing of Hong Kong steamers, the crews of the "Sai On" and "Taishan" have refused to sail while the ships are at the wharf. Armed party, supported by the H.M.S. "Moorhen," brought back the ships to the buoys in the harbour, when the crews went back to work. The "Sai On" sails at 4.50, but the "Taishan" cannot sail to-day (Sunday) on account of the Whampoa restrictions. She expects to sail at daylight on Monday and the "Kinsan" at 8 a.m. Looting is prevalent in the city and all police appear to have been disbanded. There is little doubt that Communists caused the trouble and are taking advantage of the absence of troops. No anti-foreign movement is apparent at present.

CINEMA NOTES.

WORLD AND STAR.

While the big picture at the Queen's Theatre, the special comedy, "We're in the Navy Now," has still one more day to run, the principal pictures at the World Theatre and the Star Theatre will be screened for the last time to-day.

The former is "Red Dice," a melodrama in which Rod La Rocque plays the role of a young man who insures his life for $100,000 and promises to commit suicide within a year in return for $300 to help a friend in need. Marguerite de la Motte plays the part of the young woman he marries to lull the suspicions of the insurance company. A surprise climax brings the picture to a happy ending.

The picture at the Star Theatre is Hoot Gibson's latest Western comedy, "A Hero On Horseback," in which the popular cowboy star has another dashing role that will delight his numerous admirers in Kowloon.

FOOD PRICES.

QUESTION AT SANITARY BOARD.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Sanitary Board, Mr. Wong Kwong-tai will move.

"That this Board recommends that legislation be introduced to provide means for the control and regulation of food prices in the Colony."

"NO PROGRESS."

BRITISH AND RUSSIAN RELATIONS.

SIR AUSTEN INTERVIEWED.

London, Saturday.

The "Daily Herald's" Geneva correspondent interviewed Sir Austen Chamberlain on the subject of the Litvinoff conversation. Sir Austen said that he had done his utmost to impress on M. Litvinoff that Britain was not planning an attack against Russia overtly or covertly, or to isolate the Soviets by means of a continental bloc.

Sir Austen was inclined to regard the meeting with Litvinoff as premature since neither the British nor the Russian Government has changed its position as regards questions of dispute. Therefore, there had been no progress.—Reuter.

DASTARDLY RUSE.

FIRECRACKERS TO SHIELD A MURDER.

SHANGHAI TRAM STRIKE.

Shanghai, Saturday. The tram inspector who was shot by agitators on Wednesday died this morning.

Another Chinese inspector was shot and killed at tiffin time at Dixwell Road. It appears that two men called at his residence and enquired about rooms to let. The inspector was showing them upstairs when one of them pulled out a gun and shot him through the temple after which they closed door and let off firecrackers, entirely misleading a policeman twenty yards away. The murderers escaped without being pursued.—Reuter.

MOTOR SHIPS.

ADELAIDE COMPANY TO MOVE?

Although official confirmation is not forthcoming, there is strong reason to believe that the Adelaide Steamship Company, which has been out of the interstate passenger trade for several years, contemplates re-entering this service, with two motor ships, built on the most up-to-date lines.

It is believed that an executive officer of the company will be sent to England early next year to superintend the laying of the vessels. The Melbourne-Sydney-Brisbane run has been suggested, and it is considered possible that the service may extend to Cairns.

Captain Lawrence, the general secretary of the Merchant Service Guild of Australasia, when advised of the reported intention of the company, said there was no doubt that there was scope for such vessels. The guild was dismayed at the serious decline in the number of interstate passenger vessels, and an announcement concerning new ships would be welcomed.

Henry Mallaby-Deeley's chief claim to fame will be that he made a

BOXING.

K.O.S.B. v. H.M.S. "ARGUS."

KEEN STRUGGLE.

There was a large crowd present at the boxing tournament between the K.O.S.B. and the "Argus" men on Saturday night. The programme comprised eight events, and each side won four, the honours thus being evenly divided.

FREEMAN v. THOMPSON.

The curtain raiser was a four round contest in the welterweight class between Cpl. Freeman (K.O.S.B.), 146 1/2 lb. and A. B. Thompson (Argus), 147 lb.

Both men did not show up well; they appeared to be novices, but Freeman was willing to mix it and scored with several wild punches. Toward the end Thompson retaliated. Even round.

The beginning of the second saw both men hitting out but there was a paucity of punches toward the end. Honours were again divided.

Freeman got the better of the exchanges in the third round. The sailor, although not slow at retreating, was not fast enough to settle up.

Both men, although willing mixers, had no science. Punching on both sides was erratic, but toward the end Munch had the best of the mix-up. Even round.

Munch won the fight on points, but they all came in the last round.

McGILL v. MITCHELL.

In the lightweight class Cpl. McGill (K.O.S.B.) met A. E. Mitchell (Argus) 133 1/2 lb.

McGill was no match against his opponent. He was floored no fewer than four times in the first round, and it was the gong that saved him from being counted out.

After a short sparring in the second round, McGill was again floored and gave up the fight to Mitchell.

FRAME v. PERKINS.

L/Cpl. Frame (K.O.S.B.) 155 1/2 lb. touched gloves with Tel. Perkins (Argus) 156 1/2 lb. over a six round contest in the middleweight class.

There was not much to choose between the two contestants at the beginning, but toward the end of the first round Perkins showed up to better advantage. Perkins's round.

Frame received tremendous punishment in the second round. He was floored three times, but was game enough to stand up against the shower of terrific punches from his opponent. Just toward the end, he was again sent to the boards, but the gong saved him.

In the third, Frame was again knocked down after a short exchange. He was so badly knocked about that the judge had to call the fight off. Perkins's victory.

McCONNELL v. THORNLEY.

This was a three-round contest in the bantamweight class between Pte. McConnell (K.O.S.B.) 120 lb. and Sto. Thornley (Argus) 120 1/2 lb. McConnell had the best of the encounter in the first round. Both fighters were game and many hard and rapid exchanges were seen.

Some wild though fast exchanges were seen in the second round with McConnell coming out the best of the two.

McConnell was doing all the attacking in the last round. He scored with his left and right to the jaw and to the stomach. McConnell won on points.

SEAMEN v. MUNCH.

After the first moiety Sgt. Seamen (K.O.S.B.) 142 1/2 lb. fought A. B. Munch (Argus) 134 lb. for welterweight honours.

The soldier had the better of the exchanges in the first round. The sailor, although not slow at retreating, was not fast enough to settle up.

Both men, although willing mixers, had no science. Punching on both sides was erratic, but toward the end Munch had the best of the mix-up. Even round.

Munch won the fight on points, but they all came in the last round.

HUME v. BATES.

In this featherweight contest Pte. Hume (K.O.S.B.), 126 lb., crossed gloves with Tel. Bates (Argus) 126 lb.

Breaking out in the first round, both men showed much agility. There were rapid exchanges and the fighters came out even.

Hume was scoring with his left and right. Bates was out-fought in this round. Hume had all the say.

Hume again scored in the third round and had the best of it by a long margin.

The fourth round again saw Hume leading. His opponent was totally off guard. Toward the end this round, the judges decided that Bates had had enough and awarded the decision to Hume.

SMITH v. MORRIS.

For the middleweight honours, Pte. Smith (K.O.S.B.), 156 1/2 lb., was matched against Sig. Morris (Argus), 152 lb. over a six-round set.

Smith was knocked out in the first round.

CARNEY v. GRAY.

The last bout of the evening was between Pte. Carney (K.O.S.B.), 142 1/2 lb., and Stoker Gray (Argus) 133 1/2 lb. over a distance of six rounds in a welterweight contest.

Give-and-take was the order of the first round, but toward the end Carney had the best of the exchanges.

Carney was the better boxer of the two in the second round. He repeatedly scored with his left and right, and on several occasions, he had his opponent guessing.

Round 3.—Carney connected to the jaw with his left. A shower of blows followed with Carney in the lead. Gray was outboxed in every way. Carney's round.

Round 4.—Carney scored with body blows. Gray got home an upper cut to the jaw. Both fighters were going

LAWN BOWLS.

THE FINAL OF OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP.

TWO DOCK COMPETITORS.

A perfect afternoon, a good green, slightly affected by a wind inclined to be strong occasionally—a factor which, at times, was not, perhaps, appreciated by the competitors—and a large and enthusiastic gathering of lawn bowls enthusiasts combined to make Saturday's function at the Kowloon Cricket Club, the final in the Singles Championship of the Colony, a great success.

The large gathering included many past champions, among whom were noticed Messrs. Adam Gourlay, W. Russell, R. Wallace, J. MacLachlan, and G. R. Edwards. Lapsley's tactics were characterized by short heads, possibly due to the fact that he knew his opponent excelled in long heads. Play was consistently even at first, twelve heads recording only six points. Afterwards, however, Lapsley had practically a walk-over.

Scoring was as follows:—

Lapsley	Brown.

At the conclusion of the game the competitors and audience formed a semi-circle around the table upon which the handsome trophies had been displayed during the afternoon.

Tribute to Players.

Addressing the company, Mr. C. J. Tacchi, the Hon. Secretary of the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association, said:—

Ladies and Gentlemen,—I have a very pleasant duty to perform in asking Mrs. Sutherland to present the prizes won in the various competitions for the year.

The first are the prizes won in the Open Championship singles, the final of which we have just witnessed. Any player who can carry off this event is, I think, a man who can feel justly proud of himself.

Unlike most finals in the Open championship, to-day's game has given us some thrills, and it has not been by any means a runaway victory. I now congratulate Mr. Lapsley very heartily, and call upon him to come forward and receive this very handsome trophy which is presented by our worthy President.

The 2nd prize is won by Mr. J. Brown, a very handsome cigarette box—Please throw away that pipe.

The 3rd is won by Mr. W. Russell. I think you all know that he has figured in the final and semi-final several times, and I am very pleased to see him come forward again this year for a prize, and find him still in the front rank of the bowlers in Hong Kong. I may mention that he gave Mr. Lapsley a very severe fright in the semi-final, losing the game by only one shot after having a very considerable lead.

The 4th is won by Mr. Holland who is also one of our foremost bowlers, he having beaten Mr. Russell last year in the same round. (Mr. Holland was not present).

One gentleman whom I am very pleased to see here to-day is Mr. Adam Gourlay, last year's champion. He has had a very severe illness and was unable to compete in this year's championship. He has now recovered, which we are all very pleased to know, and no doubt he will enter next year and give a good account of himself.

League Championships.

Next in the list are the League Championships.

I heartily congratulate the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club on winning the 1st Division. This is quite a unique performance, as they have gone through the season without losing a single match. I do not think this has ever been done before, but if so, I shall no doubt be corrected by the Talkoo Club who used to carry all before them in the old days of this competition.

I will now ask Mr. Cooper to come forward and receive the League Shield presented by Mr. J. Reid, a former President, who, I know, is very well remembered by all of us.

The 2nd Division Shield has been won by the Kowloon Cricket Club after a very close finish. This was also won by the same Club last year, after a deciding match was played with the East Point Recreation Club, who tied for 1st place, and this match was only won by 2 points.

Mr. Lionel Lammert will please come forward to take the Shield and I hope he will make every effort to win it again next year. Presented by Mr. R. M. Dyer, another worthy past President.

The Spey Royal Cup is next on the list, this having been won by the Talkoo Club who beat the Craigengower C.C., the holders, in the final on this green last Saturday. This is also a personal triumph for Mr. Wallace, who is now very satisfied with himself. Mr. Wallace won the Open Singles in 1922, he won the Open Doubles in 1925 with Mr. J. Russell, and this year he has won the Rink Championship with Messrs. Morrison, Laing and Chalmers. In addition he has played in several Interport matches against Shanghai in which he has always given a very good account of himself.

In conclusion I cannot lose this opportunity of thanking Mr. Sutherland and Mr. Templeton for the very fine prizes they have presented. The H.K.L.B.A. has always been very fortunate in having such generous Presidents and Vice-Presidents, and it would be unnecessary to mention names. They have all put their right hands very deeply into their trousers pockets, and Mr. Sutherland has certainly not been behind his predecessors in this respect.

In addition, I want to mention that he has taken a very keen personal interest in the Association. He has kept me busy delving into various matters in connection with the Association, and himself au fait with all that went on. Even at the Interport dinner I missed three courses owing to his determination that it should be a success, but I did not miss any of the toasts.

The last, but by no means an unimportant part of my duties this afternoon, is to ask Little Miss Lammert to come forward and present Mrs. Sutherland with this little token of appreciation for her charming services in presenting the prizes.

MALARIA AND ITS EFFECTS.

During the Great War many soldiers who escaped gas, bullets and death returned home with health shattered by disease. To sufferers from malaria the experience of one of them, Mr. Ellis Jones, of 54 Grove Park, Colwyn Bay, will be of especial interest.

"It was in 1918, when I was out in Mesopotamia, that I had the first attack of malaria," explained Mr. Jones in an interview. "I came back to England very weak and ill. My health declined rapidly, and added to the attacks of malaria were the miseries of nervous debility and low spirits. I had pains in the head, and could seldom get a good night's sleep. My appetite was very bad and I could hardly eat anything."

"During these four years of misery I was under the care of seven different doctors. They said that I was suffering from indigestion and anaemia. I tried several remedies but they proved of no avail. It was the beginning of last summer that I had the last attack of malaria, and it proved a very severe one. I was home for six weeks in a terrible condition; it was then that some friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I commenced their use."

"Of course I did not feel much difference at first, but before long they brought about a wonderful change in me. I felt myself getting gradually stronger, my appetite returned, and I was able to sleep much better. My friends were surprised at the wonderful change in my health. I am now quite well, and find work a pleasure. I feel very thankful that I started Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and shall always do my utmost to recommend them."

Go now to your chemist and ask for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or send $1.50 for a bottle, $3 for six bottles, to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60, Kings Road, Shanghai.

Little Miss Lammert then presented Mrs. Sutherland with a handsome bouquet of pink roses, in a silver vase tied with the Lawn Bowls Association colours.

Our President said at the dinner that when his wife asked him a certain question in connection with his Presidency, that he must have notice of the question. He has not had any notice concerning his part in the proceedings; but I think we should all be very pleased if he will wind up by saying a few words. Three cheers for Mrs. Sutherland—all present please. I think everyone for coming here, and all those who have helped to make this little occasion a success. (Applause).

President Replies.

Replying, Mr. Sutherland said:—Mr. Tacchi, Ladies and Gentlemen, I really do not think that this glorious afternoon is one which indicates the making of speeches. However, I welcome the opportunity of thanking you for honouring Mrs. Sutherland. It is the first occasion that my wife has had the privilege of presenting the prizes at a lawn bowls function and I can assure you that I have had a terrible time during the past week in explaining to her the intricacies of the game, for she was—fearfully nervous that she might be called upon to answer technical questions. (Laughter.) Wait a moment; this is not the first time that she has been connected with prize-givings. Thirty years ago she won a great prize—and I am glad to say that we are still living happily together. (Loud applause).

Tribute to Mr. Tacchi.

I think you will all agree with me that Mr. Tacchi has dealt splendidly with the game. We also rejoice to see many old faces among those present this afternoon. We are glad that Mr. Lapsley has at last come into his own. He has had bad luck several times in the past, but now at last he has come home. (Applause).

You will, I think, all agree that it has been a grand tournament. There were fifty-eight entrants altogether, and you will not think me too egotistic if I admit having been one of the entrants, but I scratched, for I was drawn against a jolly good man one who gave me a good hiding two years ago. It seemed to me to be the wisest course and frankly, being manager of an ice factory, he made me feel cold from the start. (Laughter.) As far as I myself am concerned, Mr. Tacchi's remarks were unnecessary. They were of the boomerang order and compel me to lose no time in pushing them back to him, but I should like to say that we have been great friends together and I should like to say that I hope that, in times to come, when I am not in such an exalted position as that in which I find myself to-day, I may have ample opportunity of working with him again, for the benefit, I hope, of lawn bowls in this Colony. (Cheers).

SOME SENSATIONAL GAMES WITNESSED.

CLUB SWAMPED BY CHINESE.

Sensational football was witnessed in Saturday's games. The Chinese Athletic club swamped the Club and the Air Force defeated Recreio in very much the same manner at Kowloon.

The Borderers, as expected, defeated the Police but R.G.A. lost unexpectedly to South China.

K.O.S.B. v. HONG KONG POLICE.

Easy Win for Soldiers.

In their return game with the Police the Borderers showed their marked superiority by winning by five goals to nil.

The Police were represented by the following:—Clarke, Wynne and Sherry, Brittain, Oram and Jessop, Pile, Cornwall, Howarth, Johnstone and Noonan.

Kosbies:—Anderson, Gear and Martin, Everest, Davey and Skiggs, Stock, Humphrey, McChiney, Campbell and Revell, Alexander.

The K.O.S.B. forwards were very nippy and dangerous in the early stages, but slackened during the second half.

Two minutes after the match commenced Humphrey scored, but this was the only feature worthy of note until McChiney scored a second goal 25 minutes after. This caused Humphrey to look to his laurels, with the result that a third goal came from him. A well-placed centre by Alexander was headed in the net by Stock. Soon after the fourth goal had been scored, McChiney showed great promise of a fifth, but failed badly by kicking the ball over the top of the cross-bar. Alexander tried to account for the fifth goal just before half time but failed.

Half time score:—

Kosbies	4

On play being resumed the Police brought Sherry into the forward line and placed Howarth at left back, where he played a far better game than he did forward.

The Police made a plucky attempt to overcome the opposition but of no avail. The K.O.S.B. were always there to upset any little move the Police attempted to put into execution.

Three rapid attempts were made by the Kosbies to secure their fifth goal but this was not obtained until ten minutes after when a centre from the right wing was met by Stock who passed it to the net via Humphrey.

Alexander was always dangerous on the left.

Clarke, of the Police, played a very good game in spite of the result. Wynne and Pile also played a very fine game.

ROYAL ARTILLERY v. SOUTH CHINA.

Chinese Win by Narrow Margin.

This match was played at Sookumpoo.

Teams:—

Royal Artillery.—Philpott, Trim, Excell, Ginty, Fuller, Vickers, Ward, Sergeant, Fulford, Leach, and Jobe.

South China.—Chung Yuk-kwan, Leung Wing-chin, Li Tin-sang, Ko Sik-wai, Pung Wa-hung, Leung Tuckan, Tin Koon-lam, Leung Wing-yok, Wong Wu, Ip Pak-wa, and Lu Fing-tsoi. Referee:—Mr. F. Smith.

The Gunners opened well and from the kick-off Leach made a nice opening for Fulford, whose shot, however, went wide. Shortly after this the Chinese scored, but the goal was disallowed; the referee ruling it off-side. From a fine clearance by the China left back, the Chinese forwards made good ground, and missed a good opportunity of scoring when the outside right, Tin Koon-lam, ballooned the ball over the bar at close range. Immediately afterward South China missed another golden opportunity of scoring when a well placed centre by the outside left was shot wide.

The Artillery now attacked, and a good drop shot by Jobe landed on the top of the cross-bar. From the goal kick South China took the ball down the field, and Wong Wu had hard luck with a shot that hit the upright, with the goalkeeper absolutely beaten. Continual dribbling in front of goal spoiled the Gunners chances of scoring. The shooting on both sides was, on the whole, very erratic, as some very good openings were given to the forwards, and they invariably shot wide of the mark. Half time came with the score-sheet blank, the play in this half being very scrappy, with nothing to choose between the two teams.

Half time:

Royal Artillery	0
South China	0

On resumption of play, the Chinese obtained possession, and from a good shot at close range, the Gunners' goalkeeper did well to keep the ball out. The Chinese continued to press, and after the goalkeeper punched a hot shot out, Wong Wu got possession and scored with a good shot.

This goal appeared to buck South China up, and from a breakaway shortly afterward Wong Wu again scored at close range. The Chinese backs were putting up a good defence and brought off some very good clearances. The Artillery strove hard to reduce the lead, and from a rebound off the cross-bar, Sergeant reduced the lead.

This goal appeared to put more vigour into the Artillery, as they played much better, and for a time they were easily the superior team. It certainly looked as if they would get level, but toward the end they slackened considerably. Just before the final whistle went the Artillery were given a free kick just outside the penalty area, but nothing came of it. The final whistle went with South China emerging victors by 2 to 1, after a very poor game, in which they were just a shade the better team.

RECREIO v. R.A.F.

Great Display by the Air Force.

A large crowd at King's Park was present when these teams lined out and the Air Force were at full strength, with the exception of Bailey. The Recreio lacked the services of Xavier and Remedios, and introduced Ward at inside right, Gosano taking Remedios's place at centre half.

The opening was sensational as in the first minute Vernon, taking the ball in his stride, hit the cross bar with a terrific drive, and the Recreio had a very lucky escape. From the kick off Assumpcao broke away, and Ward was early prominent, with some nice passing, but the Air Force again got going. By clever forward work they attacked strongly and Constable, although challenged by Silva and Remedios, went right through with a fine goal.

Recreio burst away through Brown, but the Air Force defenders were steady and after severe work in midfield Burch and Robbins got busy on the right and, the winger working in, beat Silva with a nice goal, the Air Force leading at the breather by two clear goals.

Gosano had now gone centre forward and Silva dropped back at centre half, but the Air Force were playing a great game forward. Vernon quickly found the net with a fine goal, Constable and Robbins adding in quick succession.

Recreio made many spirited dashes, but were clearly off their game and the Air Force gave a polished display of football which delighted the crowd. Vernon again scored for the R.A.F.

Recreio were now well beaten and several of the team were feeling the results of the strenuous nature of the game, and limping badly.

Comments.

Rarely have the Recreio team and spectators witnessed such a display as that given by their opponents. From the kick off the Air Force got into their stride in a manner which raised the enthusiasm of their supporters, and the passing of the forwards was very fine. Vernon played a great game, and was splendidly supported by the insides, Gallacher and Burch. The whole line indulged in some clever movements. Welsh, Wilkes and Avery were strong in defence; and the team, fore and aft, gave a rousing display of clever football.

In justice to Recreio it must be conceded that the defence was disorganised through the absence of Xavier and Remedios (centre half), Gosano occupying this position until the Air Force were two goals up, but Recreio were out of luck and on the day's play the Air Force were a big side.

Silva had very hard lines in the first half with a big effort, but the Recreio team was below form. Brown worked hard on the wing, but received little support, and the right wing was weak. C. Remedios did well at back, but the defence were always in trouble with their smart opponents. Ward promised well at the start but fell away, and Recreio had an off day.

Result:—

CHINA ATHLETIC v. H.K.F.C.

Chinese Score a Big Win.

This proved a "snip" for China Athletic, who were represented by:—Pau Ka-ping, Ng Kum-cheung, Lai Yuk-tat, Lim Yuk-ying, Wong Shui-wa, Leung Yuk-tong, Cheng Kwong-lu, Suen Kim-shung, Wong Pak-cheung, Lee Wai-kung and Tao Kwai-shing.

The H.K.F.C. were represented by:—Rodger, Wallington, Bishop, Ralston, Stewart, Watson, Vickers, McBride, Howard, Scott and Simpson.

The game opened very briskly with both teams out for business. Unfortunately for the H.K.F.C., however, China Athletic realised this and quickly took matters in hand with the result that it became a one-sided affair.

China Athletic were much too fast for the Club and any attempt to score by the latter was rendered negatory by the agility of the former.

Bishop and Rodger played a good game for the Club.

Leung Yuk-tong and Lee Wai-kung scored in the first half whilst in the second half Suen Kim-shung scored four.

Final result:—

China Athletic	6

KOWLOON v. SCOTS GUARDS.

A Keen Game Ends in a Draw.

By arrangement this match was played at the Kowloon ground and both teams played as selected. Kowloon having Tierney back at inside left, and Wheeler at full back, whilst Angus was in goal.

The game started very promisingly the Guards making tracks for the Kowloon goal but the Kowloon defence were steady and some hard midfield play was the order, until Chapman got moving on the left, and Angus tipped a nice one over the bar—just in time.

Tierney and Miles were combining nicely for Kowloon on the left, and Kowloon were very persistent for some time, Hurst just getting the ball clear with the Kowloon forwards threatening real danger. The Guards tried hard, but Kowloon were playing brightly and the interval arrived with no score.

A raid by Pile and May-on-the-Guards goal was the first item in the second half, but following this dash the Guards made a great effort through Mortimer and McNeven, and Angus saved twice in succession in fine style.

The football was good on both sides and each set of forwards were dangerous in turn, but full time came with no score.

Comments.

Kowloon gave a bright display and were a greatly improved team. Angus gave a splendid display in goal and saved many very dangerous movements. Wheeler strengthened the defence. In a good half line Hedley was in good form. The forwards were enterprising, and Tierney and Miles wanted watching, on the day they were the most dangerous wing.

The Guards played their usual sound game. McNeven and Chapman were most prominent forward. Carswell, Hurst and Johnstone were good in a solid defence.

The game was interesting and both sides served up some good football, a draw slightly favouring the home side who, however, pleased their supporters, an all round improvement being shown.

Result:—

Kowloon F.C.	0
Scots Guards	0

K.O.S.B. RESERVES v. SOUTH CHINA "A."

Chinese Annihilated.

This match was played at Sookumpoo.

Teams:—

K.O.S.B.—McDougall, Harris, Martin, Drury, Gow, McGee, Skiggs, Hart, Crawley, Stevens, and Craig.

South China "A"—Chu Yin-po, Cheung Wing-shin, Wong Kam-ning, Pong Chak-lam, Tsang Chal, Du Sze-chum, Chan Man-kin, Lau Kow-shing, Tin Lap-fat, Chu Wah-kui and Cho Fook. Referee:—Pte. Lamb.

The K.O.S.B.'s had a day out when they trounced South China to the extent of 9 goals to 1. They fully deserved their big win, as in no period of the game did the Chinese come up to their standard of play. From the kick-off the K.O.S.B.'s took the ball straight down the field, and from a good pass by Skiggs, Hart opened up the scoring with a glorious shot which left the goalkeeper helpless. The K.O.S.B.'s continued to attack, and only a good save on the part of the Chinese goalkeeper saved them from being two goals down in the first two minutes. The K.O.S.B.'s were now shooting in, and after a succession of shots, which were saved by the goalkeeper, Crawley increased the lead. The Chinese appeared to buck up a little bit after this, and from a well placed centre by the outside left, Chu Wah-kui scored. From the kick-off the K.O.S.B.'s went straight through, and Stevens increased their lead. From now onward it was simply a walk-over for the K.O.S.B.'s, and further goals by Hart, Stevens and Craig brought the half time score up to 6 goals to 1.

Half time:—

K.O.S.B. Reserves	6
South China "A"	1

The second half opened with a breakaway by the K.O.S.B., and resulted in Skiggs netting at close range. Shortly after this Crawley put the K.O.S.B. further ahead with a well placed shot. Another goal by Crawley brought their total to 9.

South China never seemed to settle down throughout the whole game. Their forwards were all over the place, and never looked like pulling the game round. Their defence strove hard to keep their lines out of danger, but they were called upon to do too much work, with little or no support from their halves and forwards. The K.O.S.B. for a while were very nippy, and took advantage of every scoring opportunity.

Full Time:—

RECREIO RESERVES v. ST. JOSEPH'S.

Bright Display By St. Joseph's.

St. Joseph's were very keen on obtaining these points and a large crowd which was present at the Recreio ground, was rewarded with a fine display of football by the College. The first half did not produce any goals. Although Leonard and Smith were active forward, smart play by Fernandez in goal kept the College out.

In the second half St. Joseph's gave a polished display and were much better than the locals, Leonard scoring a fine goal and Wilson getting another.

The Recreio goalkeeper was kept busy and Recreio only occasionally broke away, Ogley missing close in. St. Joseph's came again and Smith scored a nice goal.

The visitors were much better than the home side, and Omar at outside right for St. Joseph's played a sparkling game. Leonard, Barros, Smith and Wilson were also very prominent.

For Recreio Fernandez played well in goal and Silva Netto, Fernandez, Ogley, and Pereira were prominent.

Result:—

St. Joseph's	3
Recreio	0

R.A. RESERVES v. H.K. UNIVERSITY.

This match resulted in a win for the R.A. Reserves by 3-2.

SOUTH CHINA "B" v. CHINA ATHLETIC RESERVES

This match did not commence until 2.50 p.m. owing to the difficulty experienced by the referee in clearing the ground. It seems rather unreasonable to call upon referees to clear their grounds before match can be commenced—a fact worthy of the attention of the Police. At the match between China Athletic and H.K.F.C. there was an abundance of Police—a waste of Police—while at the other matches at Happy Valley not a single Policeman was posted. Tong Kwan scored the only goal.

Result:—

South China "B"	1
China Athletic	0

Division II "B."

SOUTH CHINA "A" v. MOSLEM CLUB.

This match resulted in favour of South China "A" by 3-1. Ng Pok-kui, Chang Chit-ming and Chan Fook-chol scored for South China and Cassumbhoy for the Moslem.

BOY SCOUTS v. CHINA ATH.

This match resulted in a win for China Athletic by 4 goals to 1. Leung Tat-wing (2), Lee Hung-ching, and Wong Hung-cheung scored for the China Athletic. Cheng Man-ping (China Athletic) put through his own goal for the Boy Scouts.

KOWLOON "B" v. KUNG WOO.

At Kowloon before the senior game the Chinese team were very smart and were much quicker on the ball than the locals. The score at half time was two goals in favour of the visitors, who added another in the second half and won on their merits by three goals to nil. There was a lot of hard kicking but the visitors were quicker to make use of openings.

SOUTH CHINA v. ST. JOSEPH'S

This game was played on the Regimental ground and South China scored early, leading at the interval. In the second half St. Joseph's, by clever play, scored twice. The game was fought out at a good pace and St. Joseph's gradually wore down their opponents by clever football, winning by 2-1.

CRICKET.

CIVIL SERVICE DEFEATED BY CRAIGENGOWER.

CHINESE DRAW WITH NAVY.

Bowlers had the upper hand in the cricket matches played on Saturday, some very creditable figures being returned. Pride of place in this department of the game, as far as the League was concerned, went to A. M. Hamson of Craigenower whose analysis was 5 for 14. W. B. Musket, playing for the Electric R.C. in a friendly match against the Indian R.C. "B" captured seven wickets for 13 runs—a remarkable feat.

In the senior division, the Craigenower C.C. brought off a praiseworthy victory over the Civil Service C.C. by virtue of which they are now occupying the first position in the League table, having seven points for three matches. The Indian R.C. "A" have six points, with a match in hand over the leaders.

In the only fixture in the junior division, the Civil Service C.C. 2nd accounted for the Royal Engineers.

League Matches.

DIVISION I.

C.C.C. v. CIVIL SERVICE C.C.

Visiting their neighbours the Craigenower C.C. the Civil Service C.C. suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of the home team. Batting first, Craigenower put up 155 runs for 8 wickets. A. M. Hamson, one of their opening batsmen, scored freely for 50. Hamilton (4 for 23), was in good form with the ball, clean-bowling his four victims.

Craigenower's bowling was of a high standard, Hamson (5 for 14) and Oliver (4 for 17) coming out with flying colours. Civil Service were all out for 37 runs, of which Wood claimed 22. Scores:—

PHILHARMONIC'S FINE PRODUCTION.

APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE.

Before an audience that might have been large—but not much—the Philharmonic Society excelled itself. There may have been a little hesitancy on Saturday in "getting off the mark" simultaneously, whilst the interval was a trifle long, but these are very minor points that can be easily rectified.

It was impossible to find a weak spot in the entire presentation. As Walter Wilkins, a player of Shakespeare's company, Eng. Lt. Comdr. A. S. Bedells, achieved a triumph, furnishing as he did most of the humour of the play.

The Other Principals.

We consider Mr. C. D. Lake, who played in the role of Sir Walter Raleigh, to have acted the part very well, in spite of his apparent handicap in the form of the board which perhaps somewhat hindered his singing.

The roles undertaken by Mr. A. E. Stone and Mr. R. Dornier were well portrayed, and Messrs. Percy Hale, D. M. Richards, J. R. Hinton, H. J. Best and G. L. Simmonds did very well.

Mr. H. Glover as the Earl of Essex left nothing to be desired both in stage presence and voice. Addison Hargrave and Herbert Moss made excellent Royal pages.

The part of the Virgin Queen was ably filled by Mrs. G. Watt whose singing and necessary regal dignity left nothing to be desired.

Mrs. M. Minney was very successful as Bessie Throckmorton and Mrs. C. P. Marcel as "Jill-All-Along" filled the part with honour.

Mrs. J. Hurst as the Queen of the May sang very well.

Mrs. E. Hanlon, Mrs. H. M. A. Day and Mrs. Cornaby also played their parts well.

The dancing was excellent and reflected great credit on Miss Daisy O'Keefe. The Misses Pestonji, Cleome, Field, George, Tolan, Punccheon, Suiter and May gave an exhibition of perfect dancing.

Those Who Took Part.

The chorus work, too, was well up to standard. The chorus consists of Mrs. G. L. Buchanan, Mrs. W. E. Cornaby, Mrs. S. F. Chubb, Mrs. D. M. Goodall, Mrs. A. E. Greenway, Mrs. A. W. Hayward, Mrs. T. J. Magill, Mrs. G. McLeod, Mrs. A. H. Mills, Mrs. P. W. Pankhurst, Mrs. W. K. Reynolds, Mrs. D. M. Richards, Miss S. E. Baker, Miss M. I. E. Bird, Miss R. Cole, Miss E. J. Coppin, Miss E. B. Dunbar, Miss F. E. Dunn, Miss M. M. Hansen, Miss B. Hirst, Miss R. Judah, Miss D.

McClay, Miss N. Middleton, Miss D. Punccheon and Messrs. J. W. Baldwin, M. R. Bell, C. Bennett, W. Brown, E. G. Canniford, H. J. Fountain, D. M. Goodall, G. W. R. Griggs, E. Hanlon, L. A. Lambert, F. H. G. Lewis, T. J. Magill, G. H. F. McClay, O. B. Raven, B. W. Sampson, E. C. Thomas, R. D. Thomas and J. E. Winfield.

The courtiers are Mrs. E. O. Alabaster and Mrs. O. H. Farrar and Messrs. G. G. S. Thomson and R. Payton Reid; the heralds, Messrs. F. J. C. Halahan and R. D. Watkins; the halbardiers, Messrs. G. Colom, F. Pile, E. J. Banister and J. Hooper.

The pikemen were Messrs. G. Stobart, J. Gale, J. Brenton and C. Loder and the bargemen, Messrs. B. I. O'Donnell and G. P. S. Davies. The state trumpeters were Messrs. H. Andrews and H. Latimer.

Thorough Co-operation.

We cannot close this review without commenting upon the excellence of the scenery which was designed by Mr. R. S. W. Paterfon and painted by Mr. Chan Siu-fong, and the lighting effects under the direction of Mr. P. H. F. Colomb were very pleasing.

The costumes are by Ah Men Hing Cheong, together with Ah Hung and the wigs by Campbell, Moore. Photographs were by the Ming Yuen Studio.

Only hard work, and thorough co-operation could have produced such a splendid effort as this light opera is and we must congratulate the Philharmonic Society and each individual member on his or her excellent effort.

[The "China Mail" has to apologise to its readers for no report of the performance appearing in Saturday's issue, owing to the report inadvertently not reaching us until after noon.]

CHINESE LOSS.

DEATH OF MRS. LO
CHEUNG-SHIU.

The "China Mail" records with regret the death which took place on Saturday morning of Mrs. Lo Cheung-shiu, the wife of Mr. Lo Cheung-shiu, a former compradore to Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co., Ltd.

Mrs. Lo is survived by a number of children who are well known in the colony, including Mr. K. K. Lo (whose wife is a daughter of Sir Robert Ho Tung), Mr. M. W. Lo and Mr. Horace Lo (all of Lo and Lo, solicitors), Mr. N. H. Lo, assistant compradore, Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co., and Miss Enid Lo, the challenger in the ladies' open singles championship of the colony.

The sympathy of their many friends and relatives will go out to the family in their bereavement. The funeral will take place this afternoon. The hearse will leave 20, Conduit Road, at 3.30 p.m., and will make a halt at the University Cricket Ground, and thence proceed to Mount Davis Cemetery.

ABOUT PEARLS.

HOW LONG IT TAKES TO "GROW" ONE.

KOMOR'S EXHIBITION.

Pearls have played an important part in history for thousands of years. Poets of old have sung their praise and compared them with the grace and fairness of men. Even to-day the pearl is an emblem of grace, innocence and beauty.

During the last two centuries the pearl has risen above the diamond and emerald; and the platinum mounting of to-day enhances its divine beauty and lustre.

Years ago Mikimoto experimented with cultured pearls and it is thanks to his patience and perseverance that one can get a perfectly round pearl, which resembles a natural pearl in every respect, at only one-tenth of the cost.

Eight Years to Grow.

Considering that it takes at least eight years before the oyster can produce a marketable pearl, the patience of Mikimoto must be admired.

Mr. Kodaka of Japan exhibits at Messrs. Komor & Komor a collection of pearls and mounted pearl jewellery which surpasses even his last year's display. There are wonderfully graduated necklaces, platinum mounted rings, ear-rings and brooches of view, all of these at very moderate prices.

The growth of a pearl in the oyster shell is shown and explained by Mr. Kodaka and should be of interest even to those who do not intend to purchase.

A Japanese Interior.

The big window at Komor's has been transformed into a Japanese interior and crowds of admirers can be seen standing in front of it. Mr. Kodaka brought the doors for this display from Japan.

A visit to Komor's art room is always interesting and more so during Mr. Kodaka's pearl exhibition.

The big Kodaka pink Australian pearl (costing $10,000) is on view during the exhibition and is shown in the big window on Ice House Street.

Sydney—Official statistics issued in connection with the drought in Queensland show that the sheep lost in 1926 are estimated at 5,335,207, with an additional loss of 956,695 in potential increase. The statement predicts that this year's losses will be equally bad.

TICKLING THROAT.

Did you ever have that nerve-racking experience caused by a bit of phlegm or phlegm that stubbornly refuses to be dislodged, but tickles and tickles until it sometimes almost strangles? Just a few sips of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, swallowed very slowly and allowed to glide down the throat, will stop that tickle and at once give you immense relief. Try it that way too for hoarseness, bronchial and other coughs. For sale everywhere.

NAVAL BUILDING.

British Views on U. S. Policy.

NO COMPETITION.

"American Constructing For Their Own Defence."

London, Saturday.
Mr. Bridgman, referring to the United States navy proposal in a speech last night, said: "I do not blame the Americans in the least. They are a great and rich country and are perfectly entitled to build whatever battle-ships they care for their own defence. We, in order to show our sincerity in what we proposed at Geneva, have knocked off two cruisers. The Americans so far as we can make out are going in for their full programme. I do not dispute that they are building for their own defence. Therefore we have no reason to complain. We have no reason to alter our own plans because of that. We do not intend to enter into building competition with any other country if we can possibly help it. Do not let us watch with jealous eyes every battle-ship which is planned but let us maintain our desire for peace and our firm determination not to build anything more than is required for our own defence. We have now reduced our navy to as low strength as is compatible with our safety."

Washington Debate.

When the question of increasing elevation of turret guns in the United States battleships "Oklahoma" and "Nevada" was considered in the House of Representatives at Washington yesterday, it was decided to make financial provision for such alterations if they were found to be in consonance with terms of the Washington Treaty. In connection with this question it is recalled that the British Government, in 1925, made an earnest appeal "That the Government of the United States should not impose upon the peoples of the countries concerned the burden of competition in armament which is deemed to result from execution of the proposal to elevate turret guns on retained capital ships of the United States, it being considered that even if arguments can be found in support of the contrary, interpretation of the Treaty having the effect of carrying out such proposals would be incompatible with its intentions."—British Wireless Service.

U. S. MURDER TRIAL.

HARD LABOUR FOR MAN AND WOMAN.

Jersey Saturday.
Bench and Mrs. Lillendahl have been sentenced to ten years' imprisonment with hard labour.—Reuter's American Service.

[A telegram, dated Mays Landing, New Jersey, December 8 stated:—A verdict of manslaughter was brought in at the trial of Willis Beach and Mrs. Margaret Lillendahl, who are accused of the murder of the latter's husband, Dr. Lillendahl, shot while motoring with his wife on September 16.

The wife swore that two negroes carried out the murder.
The jury, the foreman of whom was a woman, considered their verdict for 23 hours.

The sentence was deferred until December 10 on the plea of the woman's counsel that new evidence had been discovered.

Application will be made for a new trial.

The conviction is mainly owing to the changed testimony of a witness who at first was unable to identify the man she saw running away from the scene of the murder, but, later, swore that it was Beach.]

PEACE AT LAST.

Polish Lithuanian Settlement.

LEAGUE'S RESOLUTION.

Both Parties Agree That State Of War Does Not Exist.

London, Yesterday.
Settlement of the Polish-Lithuanian dispute was achieved by the League of Nations' Council at a specially summoned sitting late last night. The subject had been under discussion in one form or another throughout the day and difficulties which remained outstanding were at night adjusted after long conversations between Jonkheer Beelaerts, Van Blokland, the Netherlands Foreign Minister, who had been appointed Rapporteur by the council, M. Zaleski, the Polish Foreign Minister and M. Valdemara, the Lithuanian Premier. Thereafter the council was summoned and Zaleski and Valdemara in turn declared acceptance on behalf of their respective countries of the resolution which the League Council had adopted.

In this resolution the Council declared a state of war between two members of the League incompatible with the spirit and letter of the Covenant. It took note of the declaration by Valdemara that Lithuania does not consider herself in a state of war with Poland, and that in consequence peace exists between them and also took note of the Polish representative's declaration that Poland recognises and respects Lithuania's political independence and territorial integrity.

The resolution recommended early direct negotiations for placing the League machinery at the disposal of the parties, and established a committee of three Council members to report to the Council on the Lithuanian complaint regarding the treatment of persons of Lithuanian race or speech. It decided in the event of any threat of incident that the League's Secretary-General, on the request from either party, should consult the acting President of the Council and Rapporteur who shall advise on the steps necessary, noting at the same time that both parties have agreed to facilitate any inquiry by the League.

It noted with satisfaction the Polish declaration that the Polish nationals referred to in the Lithuanian appeal will be authorised to return to Poland without hindrance.—British Wireless Service.

Britain and Russia.

Geneva, Yesterday.
Sir Austen Chamberlain indicated to British journalists that there was no prospect at present of further conversations between him and M. Litvinoff. Britain wanted proof that the abuses complained of had ceased.

The agreement between Poland and Lithuania merely amounts to the cessation of the state of war and creates a possibility of the two countries conversing, but the ultimate benefits of the agreement depend on how the Vilna controversy, which is the main problem, is disposed of. This was the gist of a statement made by Valdemara to journalists.—Reuter.

AUTO ALARMS.

DEMONSTRATION AT THE BALTIC.

Shipowners on the Baltic were in mail week given an attractive opportunity of witnessing a demonstration of the new auto alarm invention for ships in distress at sea, and Major B. Benyon, the managing director of the Radio Communication Co., Ltd., is himself explaining the powers of this marvellous little machine. When the wireless operator is off duty a signal is received by the machine from any ship in distress and this signal rings bells on the bridge, in the wireless cabin, and in the engine-room.

The striking part about a demonstration given to "The Journal of Commerce" was that while three other wireless messages were being received from other ships, the distress signal from a fourth ship cut through them all, and achieved its purpose on the receiving vessel. Each of these sets, consisting of two small boxes and batteries, costs £250. The Board of Trade regulations, which came into force on October 1 last, call (i.e., vessels with more than 50 for the installation of these auto-

FINANCIAL PANIC.

Bank Suspends Conversion at Tientsin.

CHINESE AFFECTED.

Refusal Of Chihli Provincial Paper Money.

Peking, Dec. 7.
The suspension of the conversion of the Chihli Provincial Bank notes, the amount of which in circulation reaches $8,000,000, has caused considerable panic in financial circles in Tientsin.

Various Chinese commercial organizations in that city, including the General Chamber of Commerce and the Bankers' Association, are adopting a very strong attitude towards the step taken by the Chihli Provincial Government authorities. They are even threatening to resort to a general strike to cope with the provincial authorities. In view of the seriousness of the situation, the public here is closely watching the development of affairs.

It appears that foreign merchants have not suffered loss, as they have hitherto not accepted the provincial notes in their transactions.—Toho.

CANTONESE SUED.

APPLICATION FOR ARREST IN SHANGHAI.

CLAIM BY BANK.

Shanghai, Dec. 7.
Judge Ziar, with whom sat Mr. Burdett, the British Consular Official in the Shanghai Provisional Court, yesterday afternoon, heard a claim by the Chinese Merchants' Bank (in liquidation) against Siau Wan-sun, a wealthy Cantonese, for Tls. 16,565.76 and interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum from May 27, 1925, and for $3,104.66 and interest at the same rate from June 23, 1924, in respect of bank overdraft.

Mr. J. R. Jones was present for the liquidator of the bank and he informed the Court that defendant could not be found for about a year, so service had to be effected through the advertising columns of the "North-China Daily News." Defendant then approached the liquidator for a settlement but he had failed to appear in Court. (Defendant later sent a legal representative, who stated that certain securities, which had been deposited against the overdrafts had been sold without his knowledge). Mr. Jones pointed out that the defence had been put in too late. He handed into Court a number of letters showing the notices before the securities were sold and the negotiations which went on in respect of them, and asked for judgment in plaintiff's favour.

Judgment was then given for the full amount asked for, together with costs and interest.

Mr. Jones then made an application for the enforcement of Rule 64 of the Rules of Procedure and asked for the arrest of the defendant, as he had not appeared in Court and as counsel had evidence that he was likely to leave Shanghai for Canton in the event of an adverse decision.

Judge Ziar then made an order that the defendant should put up cash or shop security in the sum of Tls. 23,000, within five days. In this case no deposit, an application could be made to the Chief Clerk of the Court by plaintiff for a warrant to issue. The Judge remarked that defendant, by evading the service and not appearing at the hearing of the case, had been guilty of gross misconduct and contempt, that had rendered the proceedings of the Court a farce.

alarms on all second-class ships people on board, and not over 200 people, and over 1,600 tons). With this apparatus the first-class ships can dispense with the third operator, and the third-class ship only needs one operator—even he may ultimately become superfluous.

The Radio Communication Company is now fitting this apparatus to about eighty vessels of Messrs. Alfred Holt and Co., nine ships of the Union-Castle Line, and many ships of the fleet of Messrs. Furness Withy and Co., as well as units in other famous companies.
